

A Gentleman in Moscow Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

A Gentleman in Moscow trivia highlights the background, publication context, and memorable details behind Amor Towles's 2016 novel. Published five years after Rules of Civility, it marked Towles's second novel and helped cement his reputation for elegant, historically minded fiction.

HARD A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW TRIVIA

1. What is the full name of the tribunal that judges Count Rostov at the start of the novel?

Answer: The Emergency Commission of the People's Commissariat for Internal Affairs.

2. Which poem is cited as evidence against Rostov during his hearing?

Answer: Where Is It Now.

3. Before his confinement, Rostov belonged to what rank of former Russian nobility?

Answer: He was a count.

4. What was the name of Rostov's family estate?

Answer: Idlehour.

5. Name Rostov's close friend from before the Revolution.?

Answer: Mikhail "Mishka" Mindich.

6. What is the name of Count Rostov's sister?

Answer: Helena.

7. At the Metropol, which restaurant carries the grand signature reputation in the novel?

Answer: The Boyarsky.

8. If a guest wanted the hotel's more everyday dining option rather than its marquee restaurant, where would they go?

Answer: The Piazza.

9. What is the name of the Metropol's nightclub and entertainment venue?

Answer: The Shalyapin Salon.

10. Osip, Rostov's major political interlocutor, works for what kind of institution?

Answer: The state security apparatus.

11. Later in the story, Nina devotes herself to what kind of work outside Moscow?

Answer: Agricultural work.

12. Sofia is left in Rostov's care after Nina disappears during which era?

Answer: Stalin's era.

13. What major opportunity does Sofia eventually earn as a pianist?

Answer: The chance to perform abroad.

14. Rostov's endgame is built around helping Sofia get safely where?

Answer: Out of the Soviet Union.

FUNNY A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW TRIVIA

1. In this novel, if someone mentions "the bishop," should you picture church vestments or a child with a nickname?

Answer: A child with a nickname.

2. Rostov's punishment turns him from grand count into what long-term status at the hotel?

Answer: A resident.

3. When Rostov's world gets downsized, what swap does he make in his living quarters?

Answer: He exchanges a suite for an attic room.

4. Inside the same hotel where he once stayed as a guest, what job does the former aristocrat take on?

Answer: He becomes a professional waiter.

5. What especially memorable visual detail does the novel's cat have?

Answer: It has only one eye.

6. When history gets rude, what polished tool does Rostov keep reaching for?

Answer: Impeccable manners.

7. The Metropol's secret corners make wandering the building feel like what kind of game?

Answer: A private treasure hunt.

8. Because of her curiosity, Nina comes across less like a polite guest and more like what?

Answer: A detective.

9. Emile treats what with the gravity of international diplomacy?

Answer: Kitchen standards.

10. Even after his world shrinks to a few rooms, what quality of the Count remains stubbornly intact?

Answer: His sense of ceremony.

11. True or false: Rostov rebuilds a full life by frequently strolling the streets of Moscow.?

Answer: False

12. For how long does a luxury hotel become the Count's whole universe?

Answer: More than thirty years.

13. One end of the Count's friendship range is a hard-nosed Soviet official. What's at the other end?

Answer: A child explorer.

FUN A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW TRIVIA

1. At the hotel, what simple title does Rostov go by, as if everyone agreed he came pre-monogrammed?

Answer: He is known as "the Count."

2. If someone addressed the Count by surname instead of title, what would they say?

Answer: Rostov

3. What is Rostov's middle name?

Answer: Ilyich

4. Nina treats the hotel like a mystery box. What detail especially fascinates her?

Answer: Room numbers

5. Where do the Count and Nina first meet when she is still a child?

Answer: In the hotel restaurant

6. Nina comes from what kind of family background through her father?

Answer: She is the daughter of a widowed bureaucrat.

7. Anna Urbanova has star power in which profession?

Answer: She is a celebrated film actress.

8. Anna and Rostov often meet in a room with what personal history for him?

Answer: It once belonged to him as his former suite.

9. Which character is especially known for both culinary pride and a temper hot enough to rival the stove?

Answer: Emile Zhukovsky

10. Whose remembered advice quietly helps shape the Count's education long after the lessons were given?

Answer: His grandmother's

11. What aristocratic bit of backstory gives Rostov's past an old-world flash of danger?

Answer: A duel

12. Which hotel spot proves the story has room for both refinement and a trim?

Answer: The barber shop

13. What does the Count keep valuing with almost ceremonial devotion?

Answer: Proper table settings and formal manners

A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What piece of writing from Rostov's younger days is quoted against him at the very start of the story?

Answer: A poem from his youth

2. How does the Bolshevik court describe Rostov during his hearing?

Answer: An unrepentant aristocrat

3. In what year had Rostov returned from Paris to support a friend, a detail that helps spare him?

Answer: 1913

4. True or false: Rostov's sentence allows him to travel anywhere in Moscow as long as he checks in at the hotel each night.?

Answer: False

5. The Metropol Hotel stands across from which famous landmark?

Answer: The Kremlin

6. After his move upstairs, on which floor is Rostov's attic room?

Answer: The sixth floor

7. Which treasured belongings does Rostov keep with him after being moved to the attic room?

Answer: Books

8. Who introduces Rostov to the Metropol's secret passageways and hidden corners?

Answer: Nina

9. Later in the story, what job does Rostov take on at the Metropol?

Answer: Headwaiter

10. At which restaurant does Rostov work as headwaiter?

Answer: The Boyarsky

11. Which unusual animal resident pads around the Metropol?

Answer: A one-eyed cat

12. Who is the seamstress who becomes one of Rostov's closest friends?

Answer: Marina

EASY A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW TRIVIA

1. Who wrote A Gentleman in Moscow?

Answer: Amor Towles

2. In what year was A Gentleman in Moscow published?

Answer: 2016

3. A Gentleman in Moscow was which numbered novel by Amor Towles?

Answer: His second novel

4. What was Amor Towles's novel published before A Gentleman in Moscow?

Answer: Rules of Civility

5. What year was Rules of Civility published?

Answer: 2011

6. Who is the main character of A Gentleman in Moscow?

Answer: Count Alexander Ilyich Rostov

7. Most of the story takes place in which city?

Answer: Moscow

8. At which hotel is Count Rostov confined?

Answer: Hotel Metropol

9. What punishment does a Bolshevik tribunal place on Rostov?

Answer: House arrest

10. Rostov's tribunal sentence begins in what year?

Answer: 1922

11. Before his sentence, what kind of accommodation does Rostov have at the Metropol?

Answer: A grand suite

12. After he is sentenced, where is Rostov moved inside the hotel?

Answer: A small room in the attic

13. Which young girl becomes Rostov's friend early in the novel?

Answer: Nina Kulikova

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/a-gentleman-in-moscow-trivia>