

Arctic Wildlife Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Arctic Wildlife trivia explores the mammals, birds, fish, and marine life adapted to one of Earth's harshest environments. From sea ice hunters and tundra grazers to species shaped by extreme cold and seasonal darkness, it offers a family-friendly way to test what you know while picking up surprising facts about life in the Arctic.

HARD ARCTIC WILDLIFE TRIVIA

1. Which refuge sits in northeastern Alaska?

Answer: The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is located in northeastern Alaska.

2. Name the sea that borders Alaska and Canada to the north.?

Answer: The Beaufort Sea borders Alaska and Canada to the north.

3. Which Russian Arctic archipelago is named here as a specific island group?

Answer: Franz Josef Land is the Arctic archipelago in Russia.

4. Which explorer is remembered for major expeditions across the Arctic?

Answer: Knud Rasmussen is remembered for major expeditions across the Arctic.

5. Which vast northern territory of Canada was created in 1999?

Answer: Nunavut is the vast northern territory of Canada created in 1999.

6. What is the northernmost region of Alaska called?

Answer: It is called the North Slope.

7. Some of the northernmost islands in the world belong to what Arctic area of Canada?

Answer: They belong to the Canadian High Arctic.

8. Which island-rich region is noted here for containing thousands of islands?

Answer: The Canadian Arctic Archipelago contains thousands of islands.

9. What broad Arctic region is described as having a long coastline along the Arctic Ocean?

Answer: The Russian Arctic includes a long coastline along the Arctic Ocean.

10. Svalbard belongs to which Arctic national region in this fact set?

Answer: Svalbard is included in Arctic Norway.

11. South of much Arctic marine habitat around Greenland and Iceland lies which ocean basin?

Answer: The North Atlantic is the ocean basin south of much Arctic marine habitat around Greenland and Iceland.

12. Playful but precise: if Svalbard mailed you a postcard, which Arctic national label on the envelope would be correct?

Answer: Arctic Norway.

FUNNY ARCTIC WILDLIFE TRIVIA

1. Which Arctic bird is famously nicknamed the "clown of the sea" because of its colorful bill?

Answer: The Atlantic puffin is nicknamed the "clown of the sea."

2. What animal sometimes wraps itself in kelp before dozing off, basically inventing a seaweed sleeping bag?

Answer: The sea otter sometimes wraps itself in kelp so it does not drift while resting.

3. Which bird spins in the water like a tiny feathery mixer to stir up food?

Answer: The red phalarope spins in the water to stir up food.

4. During courtship, which duck sounds less like a quack machine and more like it is trying out a yodel?

Answer: The long-tailed duck makes yodeling calls during courtship.

5. Which Arctic hunter may leap high and dive nose-first into snow to catch prey, committing fully to the bit?

Answer: The Arctic fox may leap high and dive nose-first into snow to catch prey.

6. Which vocal Arctic marine mammal is nicknamed the "canaries of the sea"?

Answer: Belugas are nicknamed the "canaries of the sea."

7. What shaggy Arctic animal can look so furry that its legs seem to vanish under all that hair?

Answer: The musk ox can look shaggy enough to hide its legs under its long hair.

8. Which puffin can look like it showed up wearing pale feathery eyebrows during breeding season?

Answer: The tufted puffin has pale face feathers in breeding plumage that look like eyebrows.

9. If you wander too close to a nest and get dive-bombed by an angry little pilot, which Arctic bird is the likely culprit?

Answer: The Arctic tern may aggressively dive-bomb intruders near its nest.

10. What small Arctic animal can use snow tunnels beneath the surface in winter, turning the snowpack into a hidden highway?

Answer: Lemmings can run over snow tunnels beneath the surface in winter.

11. Which animal's males sometimes cross tusks with one another, like a very pointy fencing club?

Answer: Male narwhals sometimes cross tusks with one another.

12. Which bird in winter can look so white and round that it resembles a moving snowball?

Answer: The ptarmigan can look like a moving snowball in its winter plumage.

13. What seal maintains breathing holes in sea ice and can pop up through them with surprise guest energy?

Answer: The ringed seal maintains breathing holes in sea ice and can pop up unexpectedly through them.

FUN ARCTIC WILDLIFE TRIVIA

1. What looks like a spear on a narwhal is actually what kind of body part?

Answer: An elongated tooth.

2. Which Arctic heavyweight can tip the scales at more than a ton?

Answer: A male walrus.

3. Which Arctic animal is famous for being among the longest-lived vertebrates known to science?

Answer: The Greenland shark.

4. How far north can Arctic wolves live?

Answer: As far north as Canada's Queen Elizabeth Islands.

5. Which small seabird turns Arctic cliffs into enormous nesting neighborhoods?

Answer: The little auk.

6. When a bowhead whale needs air, what icy trick can it pull off?

Answer: It can break thin sea ice to breathe.

7. Freshly born harp seal pups show up wearing what color coat?

Answer: A fluffy white coat.

8. Which Arctic flier holds the title of largest falcon species?

Answer: The gyrfalcon.

9. Which tough Arctic wanderer is known for trekking long distances across snow in search of food?

Answer: The wolverine.

10. Which seabird is especially linked with Arctic pack ice?

Answer: The ivory gull.

11. What kind of bird is a king eider?

Answer: A sea duck that breeds in Arctic regions.

12. Which Arctic sleeper spends most of the year hibernating?

Answer: The Arctic ground squirrel.

13. True or false: Belugas are born bright white.?

Answer: False

ARCTIC WILDLIFE FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Which documentary was filmed in the Canadian Arctic?

Answer: Nanook of the North

2. On what kind of landscape is "Julie of the Wolves" set?

Answer: The Alaskan tundra

3. Who wrote the Arctic-centered book "Never Cry Wolf"?

Answer: Farley Mowat

4. Which researcher is known for long-term work with polar bears?

Answer: Ian Stirling

5. Who wrote the Arctic book "Arctic Dreams"?

Answer: Barry Lopez

6. Who narrated the nature series "Frozen Planet"?

Answer: David Attenborough

7. Which wildlife photographer is especially known for Arctic imagery?

Answer: Paul Nicklen

8. Which photographer is tied to the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge?

Answer: Subhankar Banerjee

9. Who is the scientist known for research on narwhals and other Arctic marine mammals?

Answer: Kristin Laidre

10. Which series includes scenes of Arctic wildlife: "Our Planet" or "White Fang"?

Answer: Our Planet

11. True or false: "Planet Earth" features Arctic animal footage.?

Answer: True

12. What children's show has episodes about Arctic animals?

Answer: Wild Kratts

EASY ARCTIC WILDLIFE TRIVIA

1. Which animal relies on sea ice as a platform for hunting seals?

Answer: Polar bears rely on sea ice as a platform for hunting seals.

2. What is the smallest ocean on Earth?

Answer: The Arctic Ocean is the smallest of Earth's oceans.

3. Which Arctic whale uses echolocation to navigate and find prey?

Answer: Beluga whales use echolocation to navigate and find prey.

4. What helps many Arctic marine mammals conserve body heat?

Answer: Blubber helps many Arctic marine mammals conserve body heat.

5. What is the world's largest island?

Answer: Greenland is the world's largest island.

6. True or false: Arctic foxes grow a thicker coat in winter than in summer.?

Answer: True

7. In North America, reindeer are also called what?

Answer: Reindeer are also called caribou in North America.

8. What do walruses use their tusks for to get up onto the ice?

Answer: Walruses use their tusks to help haul themselves onto ice.

9. Which owl can be found across the Arctic tundra?

Answer: Snowy owls can be found across the Arctic tundra.

10. What is the name of the dense underwool that helps musk oxen survive Arctic cold?

Answer: Musk oxen survive Arctic cold with a dense underwool called qiviut.

11. Which Arctic whale is famous for the long spiral tusk of adult males?

Answer: Narwhals are famous for the long spiral tusk of adult males.

12. In many northern areas, what color does an Arctic hare's coat turn in winter?

Answer: Arctic hares change to a white coat in winter in many northern areas.

13. Which seal digs snow lairs on sea ice to shelter its pups?

Answer: Ringed seals dig snow lairs on sea ice to shelter their pups.

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/arctic-wildlife>