

Aztec Mythology Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Aztec Mythology trivia opens a window onto the sacred stories and divine figures that shaped religious life in central Mexico before the Spanish conquest. From deities like Huitzilopochtli and Quetzalcoatl to creation myths, rituals, and symbols, it offers a lively way to test what you know while picking up historical context. Expect a mix of easy, family-friendly, funny, and hard questions that bring this rich mythic tradition into focus.

HARD AZTEC MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. In the Legend of the Suns, which deity presided over the cosmic era known as the First Sun?

Answer: Tezcatlipoca ruled the First Sun.

2. Which solar age in the Legend of the Suns was governed by Quetzalcoatl?

Answer: The Second Sun was ruled by Quetzalcoatl.

3. In Aztec cosmology, which Sun came to its end in a rain of fire?

Answer: The Third Sun ended in a rain of fire.

4. A great flood is said to have destroyed which world-age in Aztec cosmology?

Answer: The Fourth Sun ended in a great flood.

5. What mythic place, also translated as Serpent Mountain, is remembered as the site of Huitzilopochtli's birth battle?

Answer: Coatepec was the site of Huitzilopochtli's birth battle.

6. Who were the 400 southern stars defeated by Huitzilopochtli?

Answer: They were the Centzon Huitznahua.

7. Which codex preserves a Nahuatl version of the Legend of the Suns?

Answer: The Codex Chimalpopoca contains a Nahuatl version of the Legend of the Suns.

8. Which star goddess bears a name meaning 'She of the Star Skirt'?

Answer: Citlalicue.

9. In some traditions, which creator deity is paired with Citlalicue?

Answer: Citlalatonac is paired with Citlalicue in some traditions.

10. What name is given to the nine-deity sequence in central Mexican calendrics?

Answer: The Lords of the Night.

11. Mictecacihuatl shared rule over Mictlan with which other deity?

Answer: Mictlantecuhtli.

12. How many difficult regions were the dead said to cross on the way to Mictlan?

Answer: They passed through nine difficult regions.

13. Which tree appears in some accounts of Tamoanchan?

Answer: The pochtol tree.

14. Which festival was especially dedicated to Huitzilopochtli?

Answer: Panquetzaliztli was especially dedicated to Huitzilopochtli.

FUNNY AZTEC MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. If you wanted the afterlife package with maximum greenery and minimum doom, which paradise would you be hoping for?

Answer: Tlalocan

2. Which Aztec deity was basically the VIP of corn-related gratitude?

Answer: Cinteotl

3. Need a divine clean slate after a bad decision or twelve? Which goddess was linked with purification and confession?

Answer: Tlazolteotl

4. According to Mexica tradition, what legendary homeland was the starting point before the migration story got moving?

Answer: Aztlan

5. Which pre-Hispanic central Mexican ritual manuscript is a go-to source for studying deities?

Answer: Codex Borgia

6. If an ancient book were keeping a very organized date planner for rituals, which one would it be?

Answer: Codex Borbonicus

7. Which work was compiled by Bernardino de Sahagun in the 16th century?

Answer: Florentine Codex

8. Who was the Franciscan friar who documented many Nahua beliefs, proving that note-taking can echo through centuries?

Answer: Bernardino de Sahagun

9. In Aztec art, what eye feature makes Tlaloc look perpetually ready for underwater science?

Answer: goggle-like eyes

10. Quetzalcoatl is often shown wearing what conch-shell wind breastplate with a name that absolutely refuses to be short?

Answer: ehecailacacoatzatl

11. How many day-signs were in the tonalpohualli, the ritual calendar that clearly loved structure?

Answer: 20 day-signs

12. The day-signs in the ritual calendar were paired with which number sequence?

Answer: 1 through 13

13. Which goddess had the most on-brand portfolio imaginable for anyone who enjoys seasoning?

Answer: Huixtocihuatl

FUN AZTEC MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. When Quetzalcoatl was in his breezy wind-god mode, what longer name did worshipers use?

Answer: Ehecatl-Quetzalcoatl

2. Tezcatlipoca's signature accessory wasn't a crown or a spear—what emblem was especially tied to him?

Answer: An obsidian mirror

3. Which Aztec deity brought major mythic canine energy by being dog-headed and associated with lightning and death?

Answer: Xolotl

4. Whose name sounds delicate but actually means the intimidating title "Obsidian Butterfly"?

Answer: Itzpapalotl

5. In Aztec creation stories, what crocodilian monster was used to form the earth?

Answer: Cipactli

6. If you wanted one deity for both campfire vibes and shiny blue-green prestige, whom would you pick?

Answer: Xiuhtecuhtli

7. Which old fire god in central Mexican religion sounds like he's been around since the first spark?

Answer: Huehuetēotl

8. What alternate name was used for the god Xochipilli?

Answer: Macuilxochitl

9. Need divine help with nets, fish, and watery luck? Which deity would be the fitting choice?

Answer: Atlahua

10. Who was the patron god watching over long-distance merchants on the move?

Answer: Yacatecuhtli

11. Which group of long-distance merchants also doubled as carriers of political and military intelligence?

Answer: Pochteca

12. If a noble family was picking a school, which institution was especially associated with that education?

Answer: Calmecac

13. Many commoner boys got military training at which Aztec school?

Answer: Telpochcalli

AZTEC MYTHOLOGY FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In Aztec tradition, what sign marked the place where Tenochtitlan should be founded?

Answer: An eagle on a cactus marked the site for Tenochtitlan.

2. What fell from the sky before Coatlicue became pregnant in Aztec tradition?

Answer: A ball of feathers fell from the sky.

3. Which famous Aztec monument was discovered at the Templo Mayor in Mexico City in 1978?

Answer: The Coyolxauhqui Stone was discovered there in 1978.

4. The Templo Mayor had two main shrines. Which pair of deities were honored there?

Answer: Huitzilopochtli and Tlaloc.

5. How many levels was Mictlan traditionally said to have?

Answer: Mictlan was described as having nine levels.

6. What was the name of the Aztec 260-day ritual calendar?

Answer: The tonalpohualli.

7. Which Aztec calendar lasted 365 days and tracked the solar year?

Answer: The xihpohualli.

8. When the tonalpohualli and xihpohualli were paired together, what larger cycle did they create?

Answer: A 52-year calendar round.

9. At the end of each 52-year calendar cycle, what ceremony was performed?

Answer: The New Fire ceremony.

10. What did migrating groups often carry to hold the image of their patron god?

Answer: A sacred bundle.

11. Which Aztec earth deity was often shown as a monstrous being?

Answer: Tlaltecuhltli.

12. In later descriptions of Aztec belief, what name was given to the dual creative divine principle?

Answer: Ometeotl.

EASY AZTEC MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. Which Aztec deity was known as the feathered serpent?

Answer: Quetzalcoatl

2. Who was the Aztec god of rain?

Answer: Tlaloc

3. Which Aztec god was linked to both the sun and war?

Answer: Huitzilopochtli

4. Who ruled the Aztec underworld, Mictlan?

Answer: Mictlantecuhtli

5. In Aztec myth, who was the mother of Huitzilopochtli?

Answer: Coatlicue

6. What was the Aztec present world age called?

Answer: the Fifth Sun

7. Which sun god was linked to the current Aztec world age?

Answer: Tonatiuh

8. What was the name of the Aztec underworld?

Answer: Mictlan

9. Which Aztec deity was associated with agriculture and renewal?

Answer: Xipe Totec

10. Which major Aztec god had a name meaning "Smoking Mirror"?

Answer: Tezcatlipoca

11. Who was the Aztec goddess of lakes and streams?

Answer: Chalchiuhtlicue

12. Which Aztec god was connected with flowers, music, and dance?

Answer: Xochipilli

13. Which Aztec mother goddess was linked with childbirth?

Answer: Cihuacoatl

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/aztec-mythology>