

Bridges and Tunnels Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Bridges and Tunnels trivia explores the landmark spans and subterranean passages that have shaped travel, trade, and urban growth for centuries. From famous engineering feats to quirky facts and challenging questions, this page offers a lively way to test what you know about the structures that keep the world moving.

HARD BRIDGES AND TUNNELS TRIVIA

1. What is the Golden Gate Bridge's total length, measured end to end?

Answer: About 8,981 feet.

2. For precision fans: what is the exact main-span length of the Brooklyn Bridge?

Answer: 1,595.5 feet.

3. Tower Bridge is not purely one bridge type. What combined design does it use?

Answer: A bascule-and-suspension design.

4. How long is the Channel Tunnel in total?

Answer: About 31.4 miles.

5. Of the Channel Tunnel's overall length, about how many miles are actually undersea?

Answer: About 23.5 miles.

6. What engineering first is associated with the Holland Tunnel?

Answer: It was the first mechanically ventilated vehicular tunnel.

7. Name the structural form of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.?

Answer: A steel through arch bridge.

8. Between the towers of the Mackinac Bridge, how long is the suspension span?

Answer: 3,800 feet.

9. The Forth Bridge spans the Firth of Forth as what kind of railway bridge?

Answer: A cantilever railway bridge.

10. At its tallest mast, what structural height does the Millau Viaduct reach?

Answer: 343 meters.

11. When it opened, the Menai Suspension Bridge held what span distinction?

Answer: It had the world's longest suspension bridge span.

12. Before later changes, Britannia Bridge was originally what kind of bridge?

Answer: A wrought-iron tube bridge with rectangular tube spans.

13. What tunneling milestone belongs to the Thames Tunnel?

Answer: It was the first tunnel successfully built beneath a navigable river.

14. Among bridges crossing the Seine in Paris, which one is the oldest still standing?

Answer: Pont Neuf.

FUNNY BRIDGES AND TUNNELS TRIVIA

1. When people dramatically sing "London Bridge Is Falling Down," which bridge is actually getting all the lyrical attentionâ not the fancier one tourists keep photographing?

Answer: London Bridge

2. What title belongs both to a bridge-themed song phrase and to a 2012 episode of The Simpsons?

Answer: Under the Bridge

3. Complete the movie title before the train gets ideas: The Bridge on the River _____.?

Answer: Kwai

4. Which 1977 war film proves that apparently one bridge was not enough, because it was A Bridge Too Far?

Answer: A Bridge Too Far

5. "Washington Crossing" refers to George Washington crossing which river in 1776?

Answer: The Delaware River

6. Which 1967 song by the Kinks sounds like a very poetic way to stand near infrastructure at dusk?

Answer: Waterloo Sunset

7. Who released the 1980 song "Tunnel of Love"â proving romance and excavation can share a title?

Answer: Dire Straits

8. Which novel has the straightforward confidence to call itself simply "The Tunnel," and who wrote it?

Answer: The Tunnel by William H. Gass

9. Before it became a movie-night title, The Bridges of Madison County started life as what kind of work?

Answer: A 1992 novel

10. Bridge to Terabithia made the leap from page to screen in what release year?

Answer: 2007

11. Which real Texas bridge sounds like it should come with spurs, dust, and a harmonica solo?

Answer: The Goodnight-Loving Trail Bridge

12. In Venice, the Bridge of Sighs spans which waterway?

Answer: The Rio di Palazzo

13. Which Florence bridge is famous for having shops built right along it, as if retail simply refused to stay on land?

Answer: Ponte Vecchio

FUN BRIDGES AND TUNNELS TRIVIA

1. What year did the Golden Gate Bridge finally make its big entrance?

Answer: 1937

2. Which bridge opened in 1883: the Brooklyn Bridge, Tower Bridge, or Forth Bridge?

Answer: Brooklyn Bridge

3. True or false: Tower Bridge opened in 1894.?

Answer: True

4. Which tunnel cruised into service in 1927?

Answer: Holland Tunnel

5. The Channel Tunnel opened in what year?

Answer: 1994

6. Which famous bridge opened in 1932: Sydney Harbour Bridge or George Washington Bridge?

Answer: Sydney Harbour Bridge

7. What year did the Mackinac Bridge open?

Answer: 1957

8. Which structure is matched with the year 2004?

Answer: Millau Viaduct

9. Long before cars got all the glory, which tunnel opened in 1843?

Answer: Thames Tunnel

10. What year did the Menai Suspension Bridge open?

Answer: 1826

11. Which bridge opened in 1890?

Answer: Forth Bridge

12. Pont Neuf was completed in which year?

Answer: 1607

13. Which structure was completed in 1884?

Answer: Garabit Viaduct

BRIDGES AND TUNNELS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who is credited as the chief engineer of the Golden Gate Bridge project?

Answer: Joseph Strauss

2. Which woman played a major role in completing the Brooklyn Bridge?

Answer: Emily Warren Roebling

3. The Menai Suspension Bridge was designed by which engineer?

Answer: Thomas Telford

4. Who designed the original Britannia Bridge?

Answer: Robert Stephenson

5. Name one of the chief engineers of the Forth Bridge: Sir Benjamin Baker or Sir John Fowler. Which answer fits this clue: 'Sir Benjamin'?

Answer: Sir Benjamin Baker

6. Which chief engineer of the Forth Bridge shared the job with Sir Benjamin Baker?

Answer: Sir John Fowler

7. Which famous designer created the Garabit Viaduct?

Answer: Gustave Eiffel

8. Who was a principal engineer of the Millau Viaduct?

Answer: Michel Virlogeux

9. Which architect designed the Millau Viaduct with engineer Michel Virlogeux?

Answer: Norman Foster

10. Who designed the George Washington Bridge?

Answer: Othmar Ammann

11. Breathing room matters underground! Who designed the ventilation system for the Holland Tunnel?

Answer: Ole Singstad

12. Who helped engineer the Thames Tunnel?

Answer: Marc Isambard Brunel

EASY BRIDGES AND TUNNELS TRIVIA

1. Which famous bridge spans the Golden Gate strait in California?

Answer: The Golden Gate Bridge spans the Golden Gate strait in California.

2. What bridge connects Manhattan and Brooklyn in New York City?

Answer: The Brooklyn Bridge connects Manhattan and Brooklyn in New York City.

3. Which London bridge crosses the River Thames and is known for its striking towers?

Answer: Tower Bridge crosses the River Thames in London.

4. Which tunnel links England and France?

Answer: The Channel Tunnel links England and France.

5. What tunnel connects Manhattan and New Jersey?

Answer: The Holland Tunnel connects Manhattan and New Jersey.

6. Which Australian bridge crosses Sydney Harbour?

Answer: Sydney Harbour Bridge crosses Sydney Harbour in Australia.

7. Which bridge connects Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas?

Answer: The Mackinac Bridge connects Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

8. What kind of bridge opens by raising one or more leaves?

Answer: A bascule bridge opens by raising one or more leaves.

9. Which bridge form is one of the simplest?

Answer: A beam bridge is one of the simplest bridge forms.

10. True or false: A cantilever bridge uses projecting structures anchored at only one end.

True or false?

Answer: True

11. What is a long bridge-like structure carrying a road or railway over land or shallow obstacles called?

Answer: A viaduct is a long bridge-like structure carrying a road or railway over land or shallow obstacles.

12. In which country is the Forth Bridge located?

Answer: The Forth Bridge is in Scotland.

13. The Millau Viaduct is in which country?

Answer: The Millau Viaduct is in France.

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/bridges-and-tunnels>