

Chicago Bulls Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Chicago Bulls trivia highlights the history, stars, and defining moments of the NBA franchise based in Chicago. Best known for its six championships in the 1990s and its place in the Eastern Conference's Central Division, the team remains a major part of basketball culture for fans of every level.

HARD CHICAGO BULLS TRIVIA

1. After Michael Jordan's first retirement, what exact regular-season record did Chicago post in 1993-94?

Answer: 55-27

2. In what year did Artis Gilmore join the Bulls following the ABA-NBA merger?

Answer: 1976

3. By what mechanism did Chicago acquire Artis Gilmore in 1976?

Answer: The ABA dispersal draft

4. Which Bulls assistant coach is credited with helping install the triangle offense in Chicago?

Answer: Tex Winter

5. How many points did Bob Love score while wearing a Bulls uniform?

Answer: 12,623 points

6. Bob Love earned how many straight All-NBA Second Team selections from 1975 through 1977?

Answer: Three straight

7. At the time it was recorded, where did Chicago's 1996-97 finish rank in NBA history?

Answer: It was the second-best record in NBA history at the time.

8. Before the conference alignment modern fans know, Chicago reached which playoff round in 1971?

Answer: The Western Division Finals

9. What year did the Bulls retire Jerry Sloan's No. 4 jersey?

Answer: 1978

10. Chicago sent Jimmy Butler to Minnesota in what year?

Answer: 2017

11. With the No. 3 pick, in what draft year did Chicago select North Carolina guard Michael Jordan?

Answer: 1984

12. What was Chicago's overall record in the 1996 postseason?

Answer: 15-3

13. Winning 69 games in 1996â 97 and 62 in 1997â 98 gave the Bulls what franchise distinction?

Answer: Three straight 60-win seasons

14. In what year did the Bulls' first 50-win season happen?

Answer: 1970

FUNNY CHICAGO BULLS TRIVIA

1. In the 1991 NBA Finals, how many games did Chicago need to send Los Angeles home with a very expensive souvenir of disappointment?

Answer: Five games

2. Which team played spoiler in the Bulls' 1995 Eastern Conference semifinals, rudely interrupting the party?

Answer: Orlando Magic

3. The 1996 Finals ended with Chicago beating Seattle in how many games?

Answer: Six games

4. Who hit the championship-winning shot in Game 6 of the 1993 Finals, proving that being the quiet guy can still be extremely loud on the scoreboard?

Answer: John Paxson

5. Whose voice became a 1990s Bulls ritual thanks to those famous player introductions?

Answer: Ray Clay

6. Before the Bulls picked Michael Jordan in 1984, which player had already gone off the draft board ahead of him?

Answer: Sam Bowie

7. Who hit the deciding shot in Game 6 of the 1997 Finals?

Answer: Steve Kerr

8. In which city did the Bulls clinch the 1997 championship?

Answer: Salt Lake City

FUN CHICAGO BULLS TRIVIA

1. Which Bulls big man got the honor of being the first player in franchise history to have his number retired?

Answer: Artis Gilmore was the first Bulls player to have his number retired.

2. In what year did the Bulls bring Dennis Rodman to Chicago in a trade with the Spurs?

Answer: 1995.

3. Who did the Bulls send home in the 1992 NBA Finals?

Answer: The Portland Trail Blazers.

4. Which team ran into the Bulls buzzsaw in the 1996 NBA Finals?

Answer: The Seattle SuperSonics.

5. Road trip royalty: what was Chicago's regular-season road record in 1995-96?

Answer: 33-8.

6. The legendary 1995-96 Bulls finished the regular season with what record?

Answer: 72-10.

7. Which retired Bulls number belongs to Jerry Sloan?

Answer: No. 4.

8. How did the Bulls finish the 1996 playoffs in pure win-loss terms?

Answer: 15-3.

9. Counting both regular season and playoffs, how many total games did the Bulls win in 1995-96?

Answer: 87 total games.

10. Who returned from baseball in March 1995?

Answer: Michael Jordan

CHICAGO BULLS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What nickname is given to Michael Jordan's sick-but-still-dominant Game 5 in the 1997 Finals against Utah?

Answer: 1969

2. What nickname is given to Michael Jordan's sick-but-still-dominant Game 5 performance in the 1997 Finals against Utah?

Answer: The Flu Game

3. What jersey number does Benny often wear?

Answer: Number 1

4. What record did the Bulls finish with in 1996-97 after their 72-win season?

Answer: 69-13

5. Which player did the Bulls choose with the first overall pick in 2008?

Answer: Derrick Rose

6. Derrick Rose won the NBA Most Valuable Player Award in which year?

Answer: 2011

7. Who became the principal owner of the Bulls in 1985?

Answer: Jerry Reinsdorf

8. In what year did Joakim Noah win Defensive Player of the Year?

Answer: 2014

9. Who was the very first head coach of the Chicago Bulls?

Answer: Johnny Kerr

10. When Derrick Rose won MVP in 2011, what special age-related distinction did he hold?

Answer: He was the youngest MVP in NBA history.

11. What event gave Chicago the first overall pick in 2008?

Answer: The 2008 NBA Draft Lottery

12. What color are the Bulls logo horn tips?

Answer: black

EASY CHICAGO BULLS TRIVIA

1. What is Chicago's NBA team called?

Answer: The Bulls

2. Which league do the Bulls compete in?

Answer: The National Basketball Association

3. Which documentary reopened the Bulls's 1997-98 dynasty story?

Answer: The Last Dance

4. Which division are the Bulls part of?

Answer: Central Division

5. What record did the 1995-96 Bulls set in the regular season?

Answer: 72 regular-season wins

6. What Chicago arena is the Bulls's home court?

Answer: United Center

7. How many championships did the Bulls win in the Jordan era?

Answer: 6

8. What happened to the Bulls in their first season?

Answer: They made the playoffs

9. What run did the Bulls complete from 1996 to 1998?

Answer: second three-peat

10. What year was the Bulls' sixth championship?

Answer: 1998

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/chicago-bulls-trivia>