

Classic Cars Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Classic Cars trivia highlights the landmark models, engineering breakthroughs, and design movements that shaped automotive history from the early 20th century through the rise of midcentury collectibles. It offers a concise, family-friendly way to test what you know about famous marques, beloved roadsters, and the eras that turned everyday machines into enduring icons.

HARD CLASSIC CARS TRIVIA

1. Which car stands as the sole production model ever made by the Tucker Corporation?

Answer: The Tucker 48 was the only model produced by the Tucker Corporation.

2. In what year was Automobili Lamborghini founded?

Answer: Automobili Lamborghini was founded in 1963.

3. Which Ferrari model in this set is identified as having been built in the early 1960s?

Answer: The Ferrari 250 GTO was built in the early 1960s.

4. What model name completes this clue: it was introduced in 1928 and wears a Duesenberg badge?

Answer: The Duesenberg Model J was introduced in 1928.

5. Which classic is especially noted for its tapered rear bodywork?

Answer: The Auburn Boattail Speedster is noted for its tapered rear bodywork.

6. Which 1936 debutante arrived with hidden headlights?

Answer: The Cord 810 featured hidden headlights when it debuted in 1936.

7. Which model is famous for teardrop-style coachwork?

Answer: The Talbot-Lago T150C SS is famous for teardrop-style coachwork.

8. Which prewar Italian sports car is described as being among the most prized?

Answer: The Alfa Romeo 8C 2900 is among the most prized prewar Italian sports cars.

9. Which classic car is strongly associated with James Bond?

Answer: The Aston Martin DB5 is strongly associated with James Bond.

10. Which Italian grand tourer was often powered by American V8 engines?

Answer: The ISO Grifo was an Italian grand tourer often powered by American V8 engines.

11. In which year did the Maserati Ghibli debut?

Answer: The Maserati Ghibli debuted in 1967.

12. Which car combined French luxury with large American V8 power?

Answer: The Facel Vega HK500 combined French luxury with large American V8 power.

13. Which model is named for engineer Giotto Bizzarrini's surname?

Answer: The Bizzarrini 5300 GT Strada is named for engineer Giotto Bizzarrini's surname.

14. True or false: Automobili Lamborghini predates the 1966 debut of the Miura.?

Answer: True

FUNNY CLASSIC CARS TRIVIA

1. Which classic car got its nickname because its rounded body looked suspiciously like a bug that learned to drive?

Answer: Volkswagen Beetle

2. If a 1950s ad promised a small car made for city driving rather than cross-country swagger, which model fits that description?

Answer: Nash Metropolitan

3. Which tiny classic made getting in feel like opening the fridge, thanks to its single front-opening door?

Answer: BMW Isetta

4. Which bubble car lined up its passengers one behind the other, like a very determined rolling bobsled?

Answer: Messerschmitt KR200

5. What classic oddball became famous for having exactly three wheels, as if four were simply showing off?

Answer: Reliant Robin

6. Which model could handle both roads and water, making it the answer to the question, 'What if your car had boating ambitions?'?

Answer: Amphicar Model 770

7. Which unusual classic is often described as one of the earliest minivans, long before soccer practice became a lifestyle?

Answer: Stout Scarab

8. Which early-1950s American car proved a sports car didn't need to be enormous by being tiny and still game for fun?

Answer: Crosley Hot Shot

9. Which classic is widely known as one of the smallest production cars ever made, basically a car after a very strict diet?

Answer: Peel P50

10. Which little postwar city-car icon became famous for being wonderfully, unapologetically small?

Answer: Fiat 500

11. Which model used a two-stroke engine, giving this humble classic a mechanical recipe a bit different from the usual?

Answer: Trabant 601

12. Which famously simple French classic was designed as economical rural transport rather than a rolling luxury suite?

Answer: Citroën 2CV

13. Which practical small family car arrived in 1961, basically saying, 'Hop in, we've got errands to do'?

Answer: Renault 4

FUN CLASSIC CARS TRIVIA

1. Which legendary sports car mixed an AC-bodied roadster with Ford V8 muscle?

Answer: The Shelby Cobra combined an AC sports-car body with Ford V8 power.

2. In what year did the Jaguar E-Type make its debut?

Answer: The Jaguar E-Type debuted in 1961.

3. Which Chevrolet nameplate became one of the brand's best-known badges of the 1950s?

Answer: The Chevrolet Bel Air was one of Chevrolet's best-known 1950s nameplates.

4. What long-running American luxury model line carried one of Cadillac's most famous names?

Answer: The Cadillac Eldorado was a long-running American luxury model line.

5. Which model year Chevrolet is especially remembered for tailfins and lots of chrome?

Answer: The 1957 Chevrolet is famous for its tailfins and chrome-heavy styling.

6. True or false: The Dodge Charger name first appeared in the 1950s.?

Answer: False

7. What year saw the Chevrolet Camaro roll in as a rival to the Mustang?

Answer: The Chevrolet Camaro was introduced in 1966 as a rival to the Mustang.

8. Which debut year belongs to the Pontiac Firebird?

Answer: The Pontiac Firebird debuted in 1967.

9. Which car beat the Mustang to market in 1964?

Answer: The Plymouth Barracuda reached the market in 1964, just before the Mustang.

10. What American performance model is known by the numbers 442?

Answer: The Oldsmobile 442 became a well-known American performance model.

11. The Buick GSX was a high-performance version of which Buick model?

Answer: The Buick GSX was a high-performance variant of the Buick GS.

12. American Motors had a pony car too—what was it called?

Answer: The AMC Javelin was American Motors' pony car.

13. Which classic car served up an Italian-designed body with Ford V8 power?

Answer: The De Tomaso Pantera used a Ford V8 engine in an Italian-designed body.

CLASSIC CARS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who designed the first Volkswagen Golf?

Answer: Giorgetto Giugiaro

2. Ferrari's headquarters are located in which Italian town?

Answer: Maranello

3. Lotus cars are closely associated with which place in Norfolk?

Answer: Hethel

4. Which English town is strongly linked with Bentley and Rolls-Royce production history?

Answer: Crewe

5. Ford Motor Company history is closely tied to which city in Michigan?

Answer: Dearborn, Michigan

6. Which city is a historic hub of the Italian automobile industry?

Answer: Turin

7. A historic Italian motor racing circuit is located in which place?

Answer: Monza

8. If you wanted to visit the National Motor Museum in England, where would you go?

Answer: Beaulieu

9. What is the name of the British event that celebrates historic cars and racing?

Answer: Goodwood Revival

10. Which place is famous for a prestigious concours d'elegance for classic cars?

Answer: Pebble Beach

11. Which famous event began as an endurance road race in Italy?

Answer: Mille Miglia

12. Le Mans is world-famous in France for what kind of motor racing?

Answer: Endurance motor racing

EASY CLASSIC CARS TRIVIA

1. In what year did the first-generation Chevrolet Corvette enter production?

Answer: 1953

2. The Ford Mustang debuted in April of what year for the 1965 model year?

Answer: 1964

3. What year did the original Mini enter production?

Answer: 1959

4. What kind of engine layout was used in the classic Volkswagen Beetle for much of its run?

Answer: A rear-mounted air-cooled engine

5. Which famous door style is strongly associated with the Mercedes-Benz 300SL?

Answer: Gullwing doors

6. Who helped popularize moving assembly-line automobile production?

Answer: Henry Ford

7. Which Porsche model was the first production car sold under the Porsche name?

Answer: Porsche 356

8. Which car debuted in the 1960s as a personal luxury car: the Buick Riviera, Pontiac GTO, or Mini?

Answer: Buick Riviera

9. What is a roadster generally described as?

Answer: A two-seat open-top car

10. What tire style was a common visual feature on many classic cars?

Answer: Whitewall tires

11. On many 1950s American cars, what styling cue stood out at the rear?

Answer: Tailfins

12. Which model is often cited as an early muscle car?

Answer: Pontiac GTO

13. Who founded the company that bears the Ferrari name?

Answer: Enzo Ferrari

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/classic-cars>