

Eurovision Song Contest Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Eurovision Song Contest trivia highlights the history, memorable moments, and competitive traditions of the annual international music event organised by the European Broadcasting Union since 1956. Each year, participating broadcasters enter original songs performed live and then vote for other countries' entries, creating a contest known for spectacle, national pride, and enduring pop-culture impact.

HARD EUROVISION SONG CONTEST TRIVIA

1. How many participating countries took part in the very first Eurovision Song Contest?
Answer: Seven countries
2. At the 1956 contest, how many songs was each country permitted to perform?
Answer: Two songs
3. What material is the Eurovision winners' trophy made from?
Answer: Handblown glass
4. Who remains the only person with three Eurovision wins as either performer or songwriter?
Answer: Johnny Logan
5. Johnny Logan's third Eurovision victory came via Linda Martin's 1992 winning song. What was that song called?
Answer: Why Me?
6. Which host nation famously ended the 1978 contest with zero points on its own hosting year debut?
Answer: Norway
7. Spain's 1968 Eurovision-winning entry had a famously repetitive title. What was it?
Answer: La, la, la
8. Who performed Spain's 1968 winning song 'La, la, la'?
Answer: Massiel
9. In what year did Eurovision enter its semifinal era?
Answer: 2004
10. Before the contest added a second semifinal, in which year was the single-semifinal format already in place?
Answer: 2004
11. A second semifinal was introduced in which year?
Answer: 2008
12. Name the automatic-qualifier group made up of France, Germany, Italy, Spain, and the United Kingdom.?

Answer: The Big Five

13. Which country returned to Eurovision in 2011 after a long absence?

Answer: Italy

14. The jury-public 50/50 split for the final was reintroduced in what year?

Answer: 2009

FUNNY EUROVISION SONG CONTEST TRIVIA

1. In which Eurovision year did the scoreboard basically shrug and give first place to four countries at once?

Answer: 1969

2. Eurovision's most crowded winner's circle came in 1969. Which four countries shared first place?

Answer: Spain, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, and France

3. Which Eurovision-winning act stomped onto the stage in 2006 dressed like a heavy-metal creature feature?

Answer: Lordi

4. What was the title of Lordi's 2006 winning song, proving monsters can absolutely carry a chorus?

Answer: Hard Rock Hallelujah

5. Which Ukrainian act moonwalked into Eurovision legend by finishing second in 2007 with 'Dancing Lasha Tumbai'?

Answer: Verka Serduchka

6. Which winning group turned a costume malfunction into choreography with a famous skirt-rip reveal in 1981?

Answer: Bucks Fizz

7. What was the title of Norway's 1995 winner, a largely instrumental entry that politely ignored the usual need for lots of lyrics?

Answer: Nocturne

8. Which interval act at Eurovision 2016 basically turned Eurovision clichés into a love letter with a beat?

Answer: Love Love Peace Peace

9. Which viral meme hero emerged from Moldova's 2010 entry, armed mainly with a saxophone and internet immortality?

Answer: Epic Sax Guy

10. Epic Sax Guy came from Moldova's 2010 performance of which song?

Answer: Run Away

11. Which 2022 Eurovision act represented Norway while dressed in yellow wolf masks, because subtlety had clearly left the building?

Answer: Subwoolfer

12. What was Subwoolfer's Eurovision 2022 song title, in case the wolves were feeling peckish?

Answer: Give That Wolf a Banana

13. Which Croatian act delivered the gloriously baffling 'Mama Šim Š!' at Eurovision 2023?

Answer: Let 3

FUN EUROVISION SONG CONTEST TRIVIA

1. Which country has collected a lucky seven Eurovision wins, tying for the all-time lead?

Answer: Ireland

2. Name the other country, besides Ireland, that has reached seven Eurovision victories.?

Answer: Sweden

3. Which country sits on five Eurovision wins and shares that total with France?

Answer: Luxembourg

4. Which Eurovision powerhouse has exactly five wins, matching Luxembourg's total?

Answer: France

5. If Eurovision handed out frequent-host miles, which country would top the chart for hosting the contest the most times?

Answer: United Kingdom

6. In 2023, which city rolled out the glittery welcome mat for Eurovision?

Answer: Liverpool

7. Liverpool 2023 was staged on behalf of which country?

Answer: Ukraine

8. True or false: Eurovision 2020 was canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.?

Answer: True

9. Before 2020 got canceled, which city was supposed to host Eurovision?

Answer: Rotterdam

10. Which country made a headline-grabbing Eurovision debut in 2015 despite being far from Europe?

Answer: Australia

11. Which country managed the neat trick of winning Eurovision in back-to-back years, 1978 and 1979?

Answer: Israel

12. Eurovision history made room for a three-peat: Ireland won three straight contests starting in what year?

Answer: 1992

13. Which country finally got its very first Eurovision win in 2017?

Answer: Portugal

EUROVISION SONG CONTEST FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In which Swiss city was the very first Eurovision Song Contest held?

Answer: Lugano, Switzerland.

2. Which country won the 1956 Eurovision Song Contest?

Answer: Switzerland.

3. Who was the first-ever winner of the Eurovision Song Contest?

Answer: Lys Assia.

4. Which famous group won Eurovision in 1974 for Sweden?

Answer: ABBA.

5. What was ABBA's Eurovision-winning song called?

Answer: Waterloo.

6. Which singer won Eurovision in 1988 while representing Switzerland?

Answer: Celine Dion.

7. Johnny Logan's 1980 winning Eurovision song had a question in its title. What was it?

Answer: What's Another Year.

8. When Johnny Logan won Eurovision again in 1987, what song did he sing?

Answer: Hold Me Now.

9. Which band won Eurovision in 1997 for the United Kingdom?

Answer: Katrina and the Waves.

10. What was the title of the United Kingdom's 1997 Eurovision-winning song?

Answer: Love Shine a Light.

11. Who won Eurovision 2009 for Norway?

Answer: Alexander Rybak.

12. Which storybook-sounding song helped Alexander Rybak win Eurovision?

Answer: Fairytale.

EASY EUROVISION SONG CONTEST TRIVIA

1. In what year was the first Eurovision Song Contest held?

Answer: 1956

2. Which organization runs the Eurovision Song Contest?

Answer: The European Broadcasting Union

3. Is the Eurovision Song Contest held every year or every four years?

Answer: Every year

4. At Eurovision, each entry represents what?

Answer: A country

5. True or false: Do Eurovision entries have to be original songs?

Answer: True

6. When countries vote in Eurovision, can they vote for their own song?

Answer: No, they vote for other countries' songs

7. What is the contest commonly called for short?

Answer: Eurovision

8. Are Eurovision performances shown live or pre-recorded?

Answer: Live

9. Through which network is the event carried?

Answer: The Eurovision network

10. Besides the Eurovision network, which radio network also distributes the event?

Answer: Euroradio

11. What decides which country wins Eurovision?

Answer: Points

12. Eurovision is a contest for members of which organization?

Answer: The EBU

13. What kind of event is Eurovision?

Answer: An international song competition

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/eurovision-song-contest-trivia>