

Fast food Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Fast food trivia explores the mass-produced meals and snacks created for quick service, takeout, and everyday convenience. From early drive-ins to global chains, fast food has shaped dining habits through standardized preparation, portable packaging, and recognizable branding. Expect a mix of easy, funny, and challenging facts about the meals, menus, and business model behind this modern food culture.

HARD FAST FOOD TRIVIA

1. Which founder's full name is tied to the earliest beginnings of A&W?

Answer: Roy W. Allen

2. The chain Arby's traces its founding to which pair of brothers?

Answer: Leroy and Forrest Raffel

3. Name the White Castle co-founder who was not Billy Ingram.?

Answer: Walter Anderson

4. Before it became known for hamburgers, what kind of operation did Carl's Jr. start as?

Answer: A hot dog cart

5. Before burgers and baskets took over the menu, which product was central to Dairy Queen's identity?

Answer: Soft serve

6. Domino's started life in which Michigan city?

Answer: Ypsilanti, Michigan

7. What was Domino's called before it became Domino's Pizza?

Answer: DomiNick's

8. In the car-centered postwar United States, what service format became a defining feature of many fast-food chains?

Answer: Drive-through service

9. Which family combination is credited with founding Five Guys?

Answer: Jerry and Janie Murrell with their sons

10. Which two burger chains have operated as sister brands under shared corporate ownership?

Answer: Hardee's and Carl's Jr.

11. Who founded Jack in the Box?

Answer: Robert O. Peterson

12. KFC's beginnings are traced to what Kentucky location?

Answer: North Corbin, Kentucky

13. In the 1990s, Kentucky Fried Chicken shifted publicly to what shorter brand form?

Answer: KFC

14. Which fast-food chain borrowed its seafaring brand imagery from Treasure Island?

Answer: Long John Silver's

FUNNY FAST FOOD TRIVIA

1. Burger King didn't appear by burger sorcery alone. Which co-founder helped start it?

Answer: David Edgerton co-founded Burger King.

2. Which Burger King co-founder shares the credit with David Edgerton?

Answer: James McLamore co-founded Burger King.

3. Arby's began as a two-brother operation. Which Raffel brother co-founded it: Forrest or Leroy?

Answer: Forrest Raffel co-founded Arby's.

4. Before pizza trackers and late-night cravings, which co-founder helped launch Domino's?

Answer: James Monaghan co-founded Domino's.

5. What year did the name 'Kentucky Fried Chicken' get officially adopted?

Answer: The name Kentucky Fried Chicken was adopted in 1952.

6. Popeyes sounds like it might salute a sailor, but which character actually inspired the name?

Answer: Popeyes was named after Popeye Doyle from The French Connection.

7. Captain D's didn't start out sounding quite so nautical. What was its original name?

Answer: Captain D's began under the name Mr. D's Seafood and Hamburgers.

8. If you time-traveled to the first version of Captain D's, what title would be on the sign instead of 'Captain'?

Answer: It would say Mr. D's Seafood and Hamburgers.

9. Which pair of burger chains are basically the 'same playlist, different speakers' duo with shared ownership and similar menus?

Answer: Checkers and Rally's.

10. What fast-food pairing is noted for shared ownership and menus so similar they could probably borrow each other's ketchup?

Answer: Checkers and Rally's.

11. Drive-thrus became common in fast food during what broader era when cars were king and walking got less menu power?

Answer: During the automobile age.

12. If the rise of fast-food drive-thrus had a four-wheeled co-star, what era would get the credit?

Answer: The automobile age.

13. Name the early KFC franchisee who got in on the chicken action before it was a worldwide habit.?

Answer: Pete Harman.

FUN FAST FOOD TRIVIA

1. Before it became known as a restaurant chain, what drink was A&W closely associated with selling?

Answer: Root beer

2. Burger King got its start in which city and state?

Answer: Miami, Florida

3. Which famous Burger King sandwich first arrived in 1957?

Answer: The Whopper

4. Which Carney brother is specifically named as a co-founder of Pizza Hut?

Answer: Dan Carney

5. In-N-Out Burger first opened in 1948 in what California city?

Answer: Baldwin Park, California

6. Which fast-food chain is especially known for the unexpected duo of fried chicken and sweet-style spaghetti?

Answer: Jollibee

7. KFC was originally built around whose pressure-fried chicken recipe?

Answer: Harland Sanders

8. Little Caesars was founded by which husband-and-wife team?

Answer: Mike Ilitch and Marian Ilitch

9. Before Ray Kroc entered the picture, McDonald's was founded by which two brothers?

Answer: Richard and Maurice McDonald

10. Pizza Hut began in Wichita, Kansas, founded by which pair of brothers?

Answer: Dan and Frank Carney

11. Which founder launched Popeyes in the New Orleans area?

Answer: Al Copeland

12. What role did Ray Kroc take on when he joined McDonald's in the 1950s?

Answer: He joined as a franchising agent.

13. Ray Kroc opened his first McDonald's franchise in 1955 in which Illinois city?

Answer: Des Plaines, Illinois

FAST FOOD FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Which fast food chain is especially known for roast beef sandwiches?

Answer: Arby's

2. Burger King once told customers they could enjoy their food what way?

Answer: Have It Your Way

3. True or false: Chick-fil-A restaurants are known for being closed on Sundays.?

Answer: True

4. Dairy Queen is best known for what kind of desserts?

Answer: soft-serve desserts

5. Who founded Wendy's?

Answer: Dave Thomas

6. What kind of restaurant is typically built around speed, standardized preparation, and limited-service ordering?

Answer: fast food

7. Harland Sanders was widely marketed under what nickname?

Answer: Colonel Sanders

8. KFC is best known for what main food?

Answer: fried chicken

9. Who founded KFC?

Answer: Colonel Harland Sanders

10. Which McDonald brother had the first name Maurice?

Answer: Maurice McDonald

11. What children's McDonald's meal became famous for including a toy tie-in?

Answer: Happy Meal

12. In what year does McDonald's trace its start to a restaurant opening?

Answer: 1940

EASY FAST FOOD TRIVIA

1. A&W started out selling what drink before it became a fast-food chain?

Answer: Root beer

2. In what year was Arby's founded?

Answer: 1964

3. Burger King opened in what year?

Answer: 1954

4. Who founded Chick-fil-A?

Answer: S. Truett Cathy

5. Domino's was founded in which year?

Answer: 1960

6. Which co-founder helped start In-N-Out Burger alongside Harry Snyder?

Answer: Esther Snyder

7. Which person co-founded Subway with Peter Buck?

Answer: Fred DeLuca

8. Who founded Taco Bell?

Answer: Glen Bell

9. Which Snyder was a co-founder of In-N-Out Burger?

Answer: Harry Snyder

10. In-N-Out Burger got its start in which California city?

Answer: Baldwin Park, California

11. What year marks the founding of In-N-Out Burger?

Answer: 1948

12. At In-N-Out, what menu phrase is famous in options like '___ Style'?

Answer: Animal Style

13. Jack in the Box became especially linked with what fictional mascot name?

Answer: Jack

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/fast-food-trivia>