

Greek Philosophers Trivia Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Greek Philosophers Trivia trivia explores the ideas, lives, and rivalries of the ancient thinkers who helped define Western philosophy. From the Athenian circles of Socrates and Plato to Aristotle's lasting influence on logic, ethics, and science, this topic offers a lively way to revisit big questions through easy, funny, and challenging prompts.

HARD GREEK PHILOSOPHERS TRIVIA

1. Which philosopher's father was Nicomachus, a figure connected with the Macedonian court?

Answer: Aristotle

2. In which city was Aristotle born?

Answer: Stagira

3. A birthplace challenge: Aristotle first entered the world in what city?

Answer: Stagira

4. If a clue card simply says 'strongly linked to Elea,' which philosopher should you pick?

Answer: Parmenides

5. Who turned motion into a headache with paradoxes famous enough to define his reputation?

Answer: Zeno of Elea

6. Which philosopher came from Acragas in Sicily?

Answer: Empedocles

7. Identify the philosopher whose home city is given as Acragas, located in Sicily.?

Answer: Empedocles

8. Which early atomist is traditionally paired with Democritus?

Answer: Leucippus

9. When Democritus gets top billing in early atomism, which partner's name belongs beside his?

Answer: Leucippus

10. Name the philosopher whose birthplace is listed as Hierapolis in Phrygia.?

Answer: Epictetus

11. If the clue combines 'later Neoplatonist' with 'from Chalchis in Syria,' who is it?

Answer: Iamblichus

12. Who headed the Academy in Athens in the 5th century CE?

Answer: Proclus

13. Which philosopher is tied specifically to leading the Academy at Athens during the 5th century CE?

Answer: Proclus

14. Who is often called the last head of the Athenian Academy?

Answer: Damascius

FUNNY GREEK PHILOSOPHERS TRIVIA

1. If Cynic philosophy were a Halloween costume, what Greek meaning would be on the name tag?

Answer: Dog-like

2. What does the word philosophy literally mean in its Greek roots?

Answer: Love of wisdom

3. Which Greek word in philosophy brings the wisdom instead of just the dramatic eyebrow raise?

Answer: Sophia

4. Which Greek word supplies the 'love' part in the idea of philosophy?

Answer: Philo

5. The Stoics got their label from what place name that sounds like an art venue with shade?

Answer: Stoa Poikile

6. True or false: 'Academy' ultimately traces back to Akademos, a hero linked with Plato's school site.?

Answer: True

7. If Aristotle's school wanted a one-word brand on a sandal, what name fits?

Answer: Peripatetic

8. Which philosophical movement is named directly after the skeptic Pyrrho?

Answer: Pyrrhonism

9. Which figure gives the Academy its name: a hero, a god, or a porch?

Answer: Akademos

10. What does Stoa Poikile mean, proving Stoicism began with both thought and decor?

Answer: Painted Porch

11. Which Greek term means wisdom, in case your quiz team needs a smarter mascot?

Answer: Sophia

12. Which Greek term means love or affection, not just having a favorite olive?

Answer: Philo

13. The 'Lyceum' name comes from which figure associated with Apollo?

Answer: Apollo Lyceus

FUN GREEK PHILOSOPHERS TRIVIA

1. Anaximander reached for what word when talking about the boundless or indefinite?

Answer: apeiron

2. If something is literally "indivisible" in Greek, which word fits the bill?

Answer: atomos

3. Which Greek philosophy term is often translated as flourishing or well-being?

Answer: eudaimonia

4. What term names that enviable state of untroubled tranquility?

Answer: ataraxia

5. In skepticism, what does epochê mean?

Answer: Suspension of judgment

6. Philosophical GPS time: what Greek word means an end or goal?

Answer: telos

7. What term describes acting against your own better judgmentâ basically losing an argument with yourself?

Answer: akrasia

8. Democritus is associated with Abdera. In which region was Abdera located?

Answer: Thrace

9. Heraclitus came from Ephesus. Ephesus was in what region?

Answer: Ionia

10. Diogenes is linked to which city on the Black Sea?

Answer: Sinope

11. Zeno is connected with Citium. Citium was on which island?

Answer: Cyprus

12. What name was given to the Greek-settled regions of southern Italy?

Answer: Magna Graecia

13. Late ancient philosophical activity had an important regional hub in which part of the world?

Answer: North Africa

GREEK PHILOSOPHERS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Which Platonic work presents Socrates giving his defense speech?

Answer: Apology

2. In Plato's writings, which dialogue is about love?

Answer: Symposium

3. Which of these is one of Plato's dialogues: Phaedo, Enneads, Discourses, or Nicomachean Ethics?

Answer: Phaedo

4. What is the name of Plato's dialogue that discusses the cosmos?

Answer: Timaeus

5. Aristotle wrote which famous work on ethics?

Answer: Nicomachean Ethics

6. True or false: Aristotle wrote a work known as Physics.?

Answer: True

7. Who took over as head of the Lyceum after Aristotle?

Answer: Theophrastus

8. Which surviving work was written by Theophrastus?

Answer: The Characters

9. Xenophon wrote which Socratic work?

Answer: Oeconomicus

10. Which work preserves the teachings of Epictetus?

Answer: Discourses

11. The Handbook of Epictetus is another English name for what work?

Answer: Enchiridion

12. Which major Roman Stoic philosopher is being described here?

Answer: Marcus Aurelius

EASY GREEK PHILOSOPHERS TRIVIA

1. Who is best known as the teacher of Plato?

Answer: Socrates

2. Which philosopher founded the Academy in Athens around 387 BCE?

Answer: Plato

3. The Lyceum in Athens was founded by which philosopher?

Answer: Aristotle

4. On which island was Pythagoras born?

Answer: Samos

5. Heraclitus came from which city?

Answer: Ephesus

6. Democritus is commonly linked with what city?

Answer: Abdera

7. Which philosopher taught in a school known as the Garden?

Answer: Epicurus

8. Stoicism began in which city in the early 3rd century BCE?

Answer: Athens

9. Who founded Stoicism?

Answer: Zeno of Citium

10. Zeno, the founder of Stoicism, was from Citium on which island?

Answer: Cyprus

11. Diogenes of Sinope is a central figure in which philosophical tradition?

Answer: Cynic philosophy

12. Pyrrho is most closely associated with what city?

Answer: Elis

13. Hypatia's career is tied to which city in Egypt?

Answer: Alexandria

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/greek-philosophers-trivia-trivia>