

Harvest Festival Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Harvest Festival trivia explores the customs, symbols, and community traditions tied to giving thanks for the autumn harvest. Rooted in agricultural calendars and celebrated in many forms across cultures, harvest festivals have long marked the close of the growing season with food, music, and shared ritual. This page offers a concise mix of easy, family-friendly, funny, and harder questions for readers who want both fun and context.

HARD HARVEST FESTIVAL TRIVIA

1. On which exact day of Tishrei does Sukkot begin in the Hebrew calendar?

Answer: The 15th day of Tishrei.

2. Which item is NOT one of the Four Species used during Sukkot: lulav, etrog, hadass, aravah, or menorah?

Answer: Menorah.

3. What singular Hebrew noun becomes the plural form "sukkot"?

Answer: Sukkah.

4. Which Greek term, important in Christian vocabulary, literally means "thanksgiving"?

Answer: Eucharistia.

5. The apocalyptic visions of Revelation are traditionally linked to which island?

Answer: Patmos.

6. Michaelmas lands on what calendar date in Western Christianity?

Answer: September 29.

7. Which Christian season specifically includes prayers for crops and harvests?

Answer: Rogationtide.

8. Which Jewish harvest festival arrives seven weeks after Passover?

Answer: Shavuot.

9. Nigeria's New Yam Festival is celebrated by which people?

Answer: Igbo communities.

10. In cultural discussions of Chuseok heritage, which Korean foundation legend is sometimes invoked?

Answer: Dangun.

11. What is the Japanese autumn custom of moon viewing tied to the harvest season called?

Answer: Tsukimi.

12. In old English harvest custom, what was the name for cutting the final patch of grain?

Answer: The neck.

13. What traditional name was used in parts of England for the celebration marking the end of harvest?

Answer: Harvest Home.

14. What is the German thanksgiving-for-harvest festival called?

Answer: Erntedankfest.

FUNNY HARVEST FESTIVAL TRIVIA

1. If the whole neighborhood shows up to build one giant farm structure before lunch, what is that community project called?

Answer: A barn raising.

2. What harvest contest turns pumpkins into orange projectiles by using machines to launch them long distances?

Answer: Pumpkin chucking.

3. When a ripe pumpkin gets rolled at pins like it has bowling-league dreams, what is the game called?

Answer: Pumpkin bowling.

4. What do you call the human-shaped field worker who never takes a break and is mostly there to discourage birds?

Answer: A scarecrow.

5. Traditionally, what supports the straw-filled body of a scarecrow so it can stand around looking dramatically employed?

Answer: A wooden frame.

6. Which old-fashioned game requires players to grab floating apples using only their mouths, because apparently hands are too overpowered?

Answer: Bobbing for apples.

7. A jack-o'-lantern is most typically carved from what?

Answer: A pumpkin.

8. By when had candy corn already become widely popular in the United States?

Answer: By the early 20th century.

9. What is the name of the roast that stacks the bird situation as chicken inside duck inside turkey?

Answer: Turducken.

10. Why can cranberries bounce like tiny red rubber balls with better public relations?

Answer: Because they have air pockets inside the fruit.

11. What term can mean going house to house singing in exchange for cider or ale?

Answer: Wassailing.

12. The word "orchard" comes from roots in which older form of English linked to fruit gardens?

Answer: Old English.

13. What do you call a labyrinth cut into a field of standing corn, where getting lost is basically part of the ticket price?

Answer: A corn maze.

FUN HARVEST FESTIVAL TRIVIA

1. Which poet penned the famously mellow ode "To Autumn"?

Answer: John Keats

2. What year did John Keats write "To Autumn"?

Answer: 1819

3. Pieter Bruegel the Elder painted "The Harvesters" in what year?

Answer: 1565

4. If you want to see Bruegel's "The Harvesters" in person, which museum should you head to?

Answer: The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York

5. Which musician released the album "Harvest" in 1972?

Answer: Neil Young

6. What hit song shines from Neil Young's album "Harvest"?

Answer: Heart of Gold

7. Who directed the film "Autumn Sonata"?

Answer: Ingmar Bergman

8. At the Golden Globes, "Autumn Sonata" took home which award in 1979?

Answer: Best Foreign Language Film

9. Which legendary actress stars in the 1978 film "Autumn Sonata"?

Answer: Ingrid Bergman

10. Who wrote the spooky autumn classic "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow"?

Answer: Washington Irving

11. What year did "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" first appear in print?

Answer: 1820

12. Before it became a fall favorite, "Over the Garden Wall" originally aired on which network?

Answer: Cartoon Network

13. In what year did "Over the Garden Wall" premiere?

Answer: 2014

HARVEST FESTIVAL FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who spent years urging the United States to create a national Thanksgiving holiday?

Answer: Sarah Josepha Hale

2. Which longtime governor led Plymouth Colony?

Answer: William Bradford

3. At the 1621 Plymouth gathering, who was the Wampanoag leader connected with the event?

Answer: Massasoit

4. In what year was Plymouth Colony founded?

Answer: 1620

5. What year saw the very first Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade?

Answer: 1924

6. In which city does the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade take place?

Answer: New York City

7. Which Thanksgiving TV event features lots of wagging tails and championship grooming?

Answer: National Dog Show

8. Which NFL team has hosted a Thanksgiving Day game every year since 1934 except during World War II?

Answer: Detroit Lions

9. Which team started its Thanksgiving Day hosting tradition in 1966?

Answer: Dallas Cowboys

10. At what famous residence is the National Thanksgiving Turkey Presentation held?

Answer: White House

11. When is Thanksgiving observed in Canada?

Answer: The second Monday in October

12. What is the French name for Thanksgiving in Canada?

Answer: Action de gr[^]ce

EASY HARVEST FESTIVAL TRIVIA

1. Which U.S. president made Thanksgiving a national holiday in 1863?

Answer: Abraham Lincoln

2. Onam is the major harvest festival of which Indian state?

Answer: Kerala

3. Chuseok is a major harvest festival in which country?

Answer: Korea

4. Pongal is typically celebrated around what time of year?

Answer: mid-January

5. On the calendar, Lammas is traditionally observed on what date?

Answer: August 1

6. Michaelmas gets its name from whom?

Answer: Saint Michael the Archangel

7. Oktoberfest is most famously held in which city?

Answer: Munich, Germany

8. At Oktoberfest, what twisty baked food is a familiar sight?

Answer: pretzels

9. Lohri is strongly associated with which region?

Answer: Punjab

10. Which sesame sweet is commonly eaten during Lohri?

Answer: Revri

11. TÆ”¿t Trung Thu is the Mid-Autumn Festival of which country?

Answer: Vietnam

12. What rice cakes are commonly eaten during Chuseok?

Answer: Songpyeon

13. Chuseok falls on which day of the lunar calendar?

Answer: the 15th day of the 8th lunar month

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/harvest-festival>