

Irish Mythology Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Irish Mythology trivia explores a rich body of stories shaped by early Celtic belief, oral storytelling, and later preservation in medieval Irish texts such as the Lebor na hUidre and the Book of Leinster. From the Tuatha D' Danann and C' Chulainn to banshees and shape-shifting beings, it offers a factual, family-friendly way to revisit one of Europe's most distinctive mythic traditions.

HARD IRISH MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. Which treasure of the Tuatha D' Danann is specifically associated with Nuada?

Answer: The Sword of Nuada.

2. From which set of four northern cities are the treasures of the Tuatha D' Danann said to have come?

Answer: F'jlías, Gorias, Murias, and Findias.

3. After a reign remembered for oppression, which ruler loses the kingship of the Tuatha D' Danann?

Answer: Bres.

4. Who heals Nuada by restoring his severed arm with a silver replacement?

Answer: Dian C'cht.

5. Name the member of the divine artisan trio whose specialty is metalwork.?

Answer: Credne.

6. Which divine artisan is identified as the wright or carpenter?

Answer: Luchta.

7. Later tradition credits which powerful figure with the invention of ogham?

Answer: Oghma.

8. In the Second Battle of Mag Tuired, the Tuatha D' Danann face which opposing group?

Answer: The Fomorians.

9. The First Battle of Mag Tuired is fought against whom?

Answer: The Fir Bolg.

10. Which Fir Bolg champion fights Nuada in the First Battle of Mag Tuired?

Answer: Sreng.

11. Before battle, the Dagda mates with which sovereignty goddess?

Answer: The Morr'gan.

12. Which Fomorian king is explicitly named among the opponents in Cath Maige Tuired?

Answer: Indech.

13. Bres has a Fomorian fatherâ who is he?

Answer: Elatha.

14. At the First Battle of Mag Tuired, who is the king of the Fir Bolg?

Answer: Eochaid mac Eirc.

FUNNY IRISH MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. Which professional pot-stirrer throws a feast that turns Ulster heroes into a walking argument?

Answer: Bricriu

2. What is the title of the tale usually translated as "Bricriu's Feast"?

Answer: Fled Bricrenn

3. In one of mythology's grimmest attempts to avoid slouching, Cú Chulainn ties himself to what so he can die on his feet?

Answer: a standing stone

4. According to folklore, what famous rock formation did Fionn supposedly create by hurling pieces of land around?

Answer: Giant's Causeway

5. If a suspicious animal in Irish folklore might be either a horse or a goat depending on its mood, what spirit are you probably dealing with?

Answer: the Púca

6. Which Irish spirit is the shapeshifter that can show up as a horse or a goat, basically refusing to pick a lane?

Answer: the Púca

7. Which famous Irish fairy is usually described as a solitary shoemaker rather than the life of the party?

Answer: the leprechaun

8. Who is the mischievous figure sometimes called a dwarf in Irish story?

Answer: Abartha

9. Which Irish folklore rider has the bold fashion choice of being completely headless?

Answer: the Dullahan

10. What red-clad fairy prankster from Irish folklore sounds like trouble before he even enters the room?

Answer: the Far Darrig

11. Which figure is said to keen outside a household before a death, making her the least welcome nighttime vocalist in folklore?

Answer: the banshee

12. What are the names of Fionn's hounds, the heroic duo who definitely deserved their own saga?

Answer: Bran and Sceálang

13. The giant boar that kills Diarmuid is sometimes named after which place?

Answer: Ben Bulbin

FUN IRISH MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. What new name does the young hero earn after killing Culann's guard dog?

Answer: Cú Chulainn

2. After the guard dog disaster, whose house does the hero promise to protect in the dog's place?

Answer: Culann's

3. When Cú Chulainn goes full mythic berserker, what is his battle frenzy called?

Answer: rathad

4. Which famous weapon is the deadly spear most closely linked with Cú Chulainn?

Answer: Gáe Bulg

5. Who is the wife of Cú Chulainn who is praised in tradition for the Six Gifts of Womanhood?

Answer: Emer

6. In the Táin, who is Medb's husband?

Answer: Ailill mac Máta

7. The Brown Bull of Cooley throws down against which rival bull?

Answer: the White-Horned Bull of Connacht

8. What does the title Táin Bó Cúailnge commonly mean in English?

Answer: The Cattle Raid of Cooley

9. Which magical object of the Dagda has one end that kills and another that restores life?

Answer: the Dagda's club

10. At Tara, what is the famous Stone of Destiny called?

Answer: Lia Fáil

11. Need a divine blacksmith? Which figure is the smith of the Tathá Danann?

Answer: Goibniu

12. Which goddess of the Tathá Danann is linked here with both poetry and healing?

Answer: Brigid

13. Whose name gives us the poetic name for Ireland?

Answer: Ériu

IRISH MYTHOLOGY FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who won Brí na Bóinne by asking to stay there for a day and a night?

Answer: Aengus

2. On the battlefield, which figure is often seen as a crow or raven?

Answer: The Morrígan

3. Who defeats Balor in the Second Battle of Mag Tuired?

Answer: Lugh

4. Which leader in Irish legend is famous for a destructive eye?

Answer: Balor

5. Which legendary children are turned into swans by their jealous stepmother Aoife?

Answer: The Children of Lir

6. Deirdre's tale is commonly known by what title?

Answer: Deirdre of the Sorrows

7. In many Ulster Cycle tales, who is the king of Ulster?

Answer: Conchobar mac Nessa

8. Before he was called Cú Chulainn, what was his boyhood name?

Answer: Sénta

9. What magical fish grants wisdom after Fionn tastes it?

Answer: The Salmon of Knowledge

10. What is the legendary land of youth called in Irish legend?

Answer: Tír na nÓg

11. Which sea god is associated with the Otherworld?

Answer: Manannán mac Lir

12. What hero gains wisdom after burning his thumb while cooking the Salmon of Knowledge?

Answer: Fionn mac Cumhaill

EASY IRISH MYTHOLOGY TRIVIA

1. Which figure owns a magical cauldron that leaves no company unsatisfied?

Answer: The Dagda owns the magical cauldron.

2. Nuada is called Airgetlám because he received what kind of hand?

Answer: A silver hand.

3. Who is the warrior woman known for training heroes in arms?

Answer: Scáthach.

4. Who brings Oisín to Tír na nÓg?

Answer: Niamh of the Golden Hair.

5. Before fleeing with Diarmuid, Gráinne is promised to whom?

Answer: Fionn mac Cumhaill.

6. Which goddess personifies the River Boyne in myth?

Answer: Boann.

7. Who rules Connacht in the Ulster Cycle?

Answer: Queen Medb.

8. What is the royal seat of Ulster in the tales?

Answer: Emain Macha.

9. The Táin centers on a raid for which famous bull?

Answer: The Brown Bull of Cooley.

10. Which mythic house of the dead is associated with Donn?

Answer: Tech Duinn.

11. Which cycle focuses on Fionn mac Cumhaill and his warriors?

Answer: The Fenian Cycle.

12. Stories about Cú Chulainn belong to which cycle?

Answer: The Ulster Cycle.

13. The Tíatha Dána and earlier settlers are told about in which cycle?

Answer: The Mythological Cycle.

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/irish-mythology>