

Kansas City Royals Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Kansas City Royals trivia explores the history of the American League club based in Kansas City, Missouri, from its 1969 debut to its place in the AL Central. Expect facts spanning championship seasons, notable stars, and the moments that have shaped one of baseball's most recognizable Midwestern franchises.

HARD KANSAS CITY ROYALS TRIVIA

1. On what exact date did the Royals win their first regular-season game, a 4-3 result over Minnesota?

Answer: April 8, 1969

2. Name the Royal who owns the franchise's first-ever home run, a neat bit of early expansion-club trivia?

Answer: Pat Kelly

3. In 1971, Kansas City placed second in the AL West. What was the club's final record that season?

Answer: 85-76

4. The Royals' 1971 runner-up finish in the AL West came with what exact win-loss mark?

Answer: 85-76

5. Which club defeated Kansas City in the 1980 World Series, ending the Royals' first pennant-winning season?

Answer: Philadelphia Phillies

6. Kansas City's 1980 Fall Classic ended in six games against what National League opponent?

Answer: Philadelphia Phillies

7. The 1985 Royals authored a unique October comeback. What deficits did they overcome in both the ALCS and the World Series?

Answer: 3-1 deficits

8. In one of baseball's nastiest bits of r'sum' flexing, the 1985 Royals were the first team to rally from what series hole twice in the same postseason?

Answer: 3-1 deficits

9. How many regular-season wins secured Kansas City the 2014 American League Wild Card berth?

Answer: 89 victories

10. Before the 2014 postseason began, the Royals' ticket to October was punched with exactly how many wins?

Answer: 89 victories

11. Before reaching the 2014 World Series, how many straight postseason games did the Royals win?

Answer: Eight games

12. In their 2014 playoff charge, the Royals didn't merely advance—they broomed their way through how many games before the World Series started?

Answer: Eight games

13. Who recorded the five-inning save against Kansas City in Game 7 of the 2014 World Series?

Answer: Madison Bumgarner

14. Which Giants pitcher slammed the door for five innings in Game 7 of the 2014 World Series against Kansas City?

Answer: Madison Bumgarner

FUNNY KANSAS CITY ROYALS TRIVIA

1. What eye-catching feature makes the Royals' home stadium look like a ballpark designed by someone who really trusted water pressure?

Answer: giant outfield fountains

2. Before mascot races and giant foam hats, Kansas City once used what live animal publicity symbol named Charlie O?

Answer: a live mule

3. Whose sale of the Seattle Pilots to Bud Selig helped clear the way for the Royals to exist at all?

Answer: Charlie Finley

4. Which Royals outfielder started the 1977 All-Star Game wearing his batting helmet in the field, just in case style points counted?

Answer: Amos Otis

5. The disputed first-base call in Game 6 of the 1985 World Series is forever tied to which umpire?

Answer: Don Denkinger

6. Whose Kansas City nickname was the unforgettable line, 'that's what speed do'?

Answer: Jarrod Dyson

7. Which Royals reliever answered to the wonderfully unbothered nickname 'The Mad Hungarian'?

Answer: Al Hrabosky

8. Dan Quisenberry's delivery looked like he was trying to sneak a baseball under a closing garage door. What style was it?

Answer: submarine style

9. In the 2014 Wild Card Game against Oakland, how many bases did the Royals steal in Game

1?

Answer: seven bases

10. Which Royal became famous for the very specific and very stressful job of postseason pinch-runner specialist?

Answer: Terrance Gore

11. The 2015 Royals set an MLB postseason record by doing what in four straight playoff wins?

Answer: coming back from deficits

12. Before renovations changed the look, what giant regal object sat beyond the outfield at Kauffman Stadium?

Answer: a crown-shaped video board

13. Who threw out the ceremonial first pitch before Game 1 of the 1985 World Series in Kansas City?

Answer: Buck O'Neil

FUN KANSAS CITY ROYALS TRIVIA

1. Before the calendar even flipped to June in their very first 1969 season, how many games had the Royals already won?

Answer: 30 games

2. Which Royal grabbed the American League Rookie of the Year Award in the club's debut 1969 season?

Answer: Lou Piniella

3. Who authored the first no-hitter in Royals history, giving Kansas City a major pitching milestone in 1973?

Answer: Steve Busby

4. One Royals pitcher liked no-hitters so much he did it again the next year. In what year did Steve Busby throw his second one for Kansas City?

Answer: 1974

5. Which Royals pitcher hit the 20-win mark in 1977?

Answer: Dennis Leonard

6. George Brett nearly flirted with .400 in 1980. What batting average did he finish with, still the highest in Royals history?

Answer: .390

7. George Brett pulled off a batting-title trick that sounded almost unfair: he won them across how many different decades with Kansas City?

Answer: Three different decades

8. The famous 'Pine Tar Game' has a date every Royals fan can circle. When did it take place?

Answer: July 24, 1983

9. In Game 2 of the 1985 ALCS, which Royals pitcher punched out 14 batters?

Answer: Mark Gubicza

10. Which Kansas City pitcher led the American League in saves in 1996?

Answer: Tom Gordon

11. Who led the American League in runs scored in 2000 while wearing a Royals uniform?

Answer: Johnny Damon

12. Which Royal took home MVP honors from the 2000 All-Star Game?

Answer: Jermaine Dye

13. The 2003 Royals came out of the gate like they were late for something. What was their record after 19 games?

Answer: 16-3

KANSAS CITY ROYALS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In what year did Kansas City's baseball park open?

Answer: 1973

2. Before it was called Kauffman Stadium, what was the ballpark's original name?

Answer: Royals Stadium

3. The Royals switched from the AL West to the AL Central in which year?

Answer: 1994

4. Who was the very first manager in Royals history?

Answer: Joe Gordon

5. Who served as Kansas City's first general manager?

Answer: Cedric Tallis

6. What year did the Royals make their first postseason appearance?

Answer: 1976

7. In what year did Kansas City win its first American League pennant?

Answer: 1980

8. Which speedy Royals player led Major League Baseball in triples five times while with Kansas City?

Answer: Willie Wilson

9. Which Royals pitcher topped the American League in saves five times?

Answer: Dan Quisenberry

10. Who won eight Gold Gloves at second base for the Royals?

Answer: Frank White

11. Which Royals pitcher became the first in team history to lead the AL in ERA in 1993?

Answer: Kevin Appier

12. Who holds the Royals career record for runs batted in?

Answer: Mike Sweeney

EASY KANSAS CITY ROYALS TRIVIA

1. In what year did the Kansas City Royals join Major League Baseball as an expansion team?

Answer: 1969

2. What city and state are the Royals based in?

Answer: Kansas City, Missouri

3. The Kansas City Royals are a team in which league?

Answer: American League

4. Which division do the Royals compete in?

Answer: AL Central Division

5. What is the name of the Royals' home ballpark?

Answer: Kauffman Stadium

6. What are the Royals' primary team colors?

Answer: Royal blue and white

7. In what year did the Royals win their first World Series title?

Answer: 1985

8. What year did Kansas City win the World Series again in the 21st century?

Answer: 2015

9. Which Royals legend spent his entire MLB playing career with Kansas City?

Answer: George Brett

10. What was the first year of the Royals' back-to-back World Series appearances in the 2010s?

Answer: 2014

11. The team name 'Royals' comes from what Kansas City event?

Answer: The American Royal livestock show and rodeo

12. Which lion brings the fun as the Royals' mascot?

Answer: Sluggerrr

13. Who was the founding owner of the Kansas City Royals?

Answer: Ewing Kauffman

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/kansas-city-royals-trivia>