

Magic Tricks Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts
Printable Trivia Pack

Magic Tricks trivia explores the surprising world of illusion, from ancient sleight-of-hand traditions to the grand stage spectacles that made magicians international stars. Expect facts about classic deception, iconic performers, and the clever psychology that helps make impossible feats look real.

HARD MAGIC TRICKS TRIVIA

1. Who is widely credited with the modern form of Sawing a Woman in Half introduced in 1921?

Answer: P. T. Selbit

2. In magic history, which performer became one of the earliest star names associated with the sawing illusion?

Answer: Horace Goldin

3. At what London venue did John Nevil Maskelyne perform?

Answer: Egyptian Hall in London

4. Which magician is identified as a leading figure in the Maskelyne stage tradition?

Answer: David Devant

5. Chung Ling Soo was the stage name of which performer?

Answer: William Ellsworth Robinson

6. In what year did Chung Ling Soo die in London after a Bullet Catch accident?

Answer: 1918

7. Which pair became especially associated with spirit cabinet performances?

Answer: The Davenport Brothers

8. Who is considered a foundational figure in card magic among serious historians of the art?

Answer: Johann Nepomuk Hofzinger

9. Who wrote the influential gambling-and-card-conjuring text The Expert at the Card Table?

Answer: S. W. Erdnase

10. The Expert at the Card Table first appeared in print in what year?

Answer: 1902

11. Which card legend carried the nickname 'The Professor'?

Answer: Dai Vernon

12. Which magician is especially influential in advanced card technique literature?

Answer: Ed Marlo

13. Who created the sleight known as the Elmsley Count?

Answer: Alex Elmsley

14. Which noted card magician was also a Catholic priest?

Answer: Brother John Hamman

FUNNY MAGIC TRICKS TRIVIA

1. What animal became the classic comic passenger yanked out of a magician's hat?

Answer: A rabbit from a hat

2. Which phrase is so tied to magicians that it practically sounds like a job requirement?

Answer: Pick a card

3. What kind of wand is built to dramatically give up on life and collapse for laughs?

Answer: A breakaway wand

4. A comedy magic routine often uses what structure, where the audience thinks they're in on the joke before the reveal flips it?

Answer: A sucker trick structure

5. Which classic stage effect is a well-known sucker trick, cheerfully inviting the audience to think they've caught the magician?

Answer: The Die Box

6. What children's magic effect keeps the audience pointing to the wrong hiding place for a rabbit over and over?

Answer: Run Rabbit Run

7. In the effect Hippy Hop Rabbits, what keeps changing to confuse the audience besides everyone's confidence?

Answer: The two rabbit cutouts change color

8. Professor's Nightmare starts with how many ropes of different lengths?

Answer: Three

9. Which routine traditionally revolves around an egg that simply will not stay politely visible?

Answer: The Egg Bag

10. What trick became widely known through a comedy recording gag, proving instructions can be more dangerous than the trick itself?

Answer: The Vanishing Bandana

11. Which magician is especially known for mixing comedy with magic in Las Vegas?

Answer: Mac King

12. True or false: The Magic Circle has historically been casual about members revealing secrets.?

Answer: False

13. Which British performer was famous for comedy magic, often turning bungled business into the show itself?

Answer: Tommy Cooper

FUN MAGIC TRICKS TRIVIA

1. Which magician is famously associated with popularizing the floating light bulb effect?

Answer: Harry Blackstone Sr. popularized the floating light bulb effect.

2. What is the standard stage illusion category called when it looks like someone is hovering in the air?

Answer: Levitation is the standard category of stage illusion for that effect.

3. What classic beginner magic prop sounds like a body part but is really a tiny secret helper?

Answer: A thumb tip is a classic utility prop in beginner magic.

4. Which trick is often described as one of magic's oldest recorded effects?

Answer: Cups and Balls is one of magic's oldest recorded tricks.

5. If a magician makes a coin seem to vanish with a classic fake transfer, what sleight are they likely using?

Answer: The French Drop is a classic coin vanish sleight.

6. What is the term for secretly concealing an object in the hand during a trick?

Answer: Palming is the secret concealment of an object in the hand.

7. In magic, what is a method called when the performer controls which card or item a spectator ends up choosing?

Answer: A force is a method for controlling a spectator's selection.

8. What magician's tool of attention-steering helps hide the real method in plain sight?

Answer: Misdirection is used to guide audience attention away from a method.

9. Which specially prepared trick deck has a name that sounds mysterious all by itself?

Answer: A Svengali deck is a specially prepared trick deck.

10. Which trick deck lets a magician locate selected cards by touch?

Answer: A stripper deck lets a magician locate selected cards by touch.

11. What squishy prop is a close-up magic staple and often multiplies in spectators' hands?

Answer: Sponge balls are a staple prop in close-up magic.

12. Which classic routine uses solid metal rings that seem to link and unlink?

Answer: Linking Rings is a classic routine using solid metal rings.

13. In the classic Miser's Dream, what are coins traditionally produced into?

Answer: Coins in the Miser's Dream are traditionally produced into a bucket.

MAGIC TRICKS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In what year was the Society of American Magicians founded?

Answer: 1902

2. Who co-authored the magic book Royal Road to Card Magic along with another writer?

Answer: Jean Hugard

3. Which co-author shares credit for Royal Road to Card Magic with Jean Hugard?

Answer: Frederick Brau^

4. Who created the Tarbell Course in Magic?

Answer: Harlan Tarbell

5. Which writer is especially linked with mentalism literature?

Answer: Theodore Annemann

6. The Zig-Zag Girl illusion is strongly associated with which magician?

Answer: Robert Harbin

7. In the Zig-Zag Girl illusion, what seems to happen to the middle of the body?

Answer: It appears to be offset.

8. Which famous illusion is associated with Houdini: Milk Can Escape, Floating Table, or Cups and Balls?

Answer: Milk Can Escape

9. On the TV series Jonathan Creek, what kind of work does the lead character do?

Answer: He designs stage illusions.

10. Which film centers on magician characters: Now You See Me or Back to the Future?

Answer: Now You See Me

11. What was the Chavez Studio of Magic remembered as?

Answer: A training center for stage illusion performers.

12. Historically, the Chavez Studio of Magic operated in what area?

Answer: The Los Angeles area

EASY MAGIC TRICKS TRIVIA

1. Which legendary performer became famous for escape acts?

Answer: Harry Houdini

2. David Copperfield is best known as what kind of performer?

Answer: An American illusionist

3. Which famous act performs together as a magic duo?

Answer: Penn & Teller

4. Which member of Penn & Teller performs mostly in silence onstage?

Answer: Teller

5. In what city area does The Magic Castle operate?

Answer: Hollywood, California

6. The Magic Circle is based in which city?

Answer: London

7. Which magician is especially known for sleight-of-hand card magic?

Answer: Shin Lim

8. What kind of props are central to card magic?

Answer: Playing cards

9. Which classic magic stunt is famous for being especially dangerous?

Answer: The Bullet Catch

10. What is the famous stage illusion title in which someone appears to be cut into two parts?

Answer: Sawing a Woman in Half

11. What abbreviation is commonly used for Any Card at Any Number?

Answer: ACAAN

12. Which magician became a signature headliner in Las Vegas?

Answer: Lance Burton

13. Which city is widely linked with stage magic revues?

Answer: Las Vegas

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/magic-tricks>