

Mexican Gothic Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Mexican Gothic trivia highlights the atmosphere, characters, and unsettling mysteries of Silvia Moreno-Garcia's 2020 novel. Centered on a young woman investigating her cousin's alarming claims about a sinister husband, the book blends classic gothic fiction with modern horror in a story that invites both easy questions and tougher challenges.

HARD MEXICAN GOTHIC TRIVIA

1. In which Mexican state is High Place located?

Answer: Hidalgo.

2. What is the name of the town associated with High Place?

Answer: El Triunfo.

3. Beyond her social reputation, what kind of academic role does Noemí have?

Answer: She is a university student.

4. What field does Noemí plan to study?

Answer: Anthropology.

5. The Doyle family wealth was built on what industry?

Answer: Silver mining.

6. Catalina's husband Virgil Doyle is identified as what kind of husband living in Mexico?

Answer: An English husband.

7. How is Francis Doyle related to Virgil Doyle?

Answer: Francis is Virgil's cousin.

8. What is Florence Doyle's family relationship to Virgil?

Answer: She is Virgil's sister.

9. Which Doyle is old enough to personally remember the family's mining glory days?

Answer: Howard Doyle.

10. Why is Noemí able to make the trip to High Place without financial delay from home?

Answer: Her father is wealthy enough to send her without hesitation.

11. Catalina's alarming letter specifically mentions what two kinds of experiences inside the house?

Answer: Voices and disturbing visions.

12. What underlying biological explanation is tied to the horrors of High Place?

Answer: A parasitic fungal network.

13. Howard Doyle's control over younger relatives is mainly driven by his desire to preserve what?

Answer: His family line.

14. Instead of treating the strange events as standard hauntings, what visual motif does the book emphasize?

Answer: Fungal imagery.

FUNNY MEXICAN GOTHIC TRIVIA

1. Which habit of Noemí's immediately makes High Place feel like it needs a complaint box?

Answer: She likes to smoke.

2. What makes Noemí an unusual kind of gothic-horror lead, besides her refusal to wilt on cue?

Answer: She is unusually fashionable.

3. The Doyles treat everyday life less like a home and more like what?

Answer: A place governed by rules and manners.

4. Why is Noemí such a bad fit for a household built on intimidation?

Answer: Her confidence makes intimidation less effective on her.

5. Which character is notably more nervous than the average romantic-interest figure?

Answer: Francis.

6. What contrast gives the story some of its rotten sparkle?

Answer: A glamorous heroine is stuck in a house full of mold and menace.

7. Before she sees High Place herself, what seems almost too wild to believe?

Answer: Catalina's warning letter.

8. At High Place, even dinner seems to come with which extra side dish?

Answer: Tension.

9. When Noemí first arrives, what is her attitude toward ghostly explanations?

Answer: She is skeptical, not a believer in ghost stories.

10. Mexican Gothic turns what ordinary social obligation into a full nightmare?

Answer: A family visit.

11. Noemí's bright, modern style clashes most directly with whose old-world tastes?

Answer: The Doyles'.

12. Which Doyle first comes across like he could charm a room before ruining it?

Answer: Virgil Doyle.

13. Which member of the household behaves less like a gracious hostess and more like someone guarding the gates?

Answer: Florence Doyle.

FUN MEXICAN GOTHIC TRIVIA

1. What two ideas are fused together in the title Mexican Gothic?

Answer: A Mexican setting and the gothic horror mode.

2. Silvia Moreno-Garcia said she set out to write what kind of novel in Mexico?

Answer: A gothic novel set in Mexico.

3. Instead of the usual gothic governess, Noemí arrives as what kind of heroine?

Answer: A socialite heroine.

4. Mexican Gothic mixes gothic fiction with what especially squirm-inducing horror element?

Answer: Body horror.

5. What organism keeps popping up as a recurring motif in the novel?

Answer: Fungi.

6. At High Place, Noemí deals with more than awkward family dinners. What experience plays a major role for her?

Answer: Dreams and visions.

7. True or false: The Doyles are fully accepted as insiders in Mexico.?

Answer: False

8. Which major historical power dynamic is one of the novel's themes?

Answer: Colonialism.

9. The Doyle family ideology in the novel involves what disturbing concept?

Answer: Eugenics.

10. Mexican Gothic reached the finals for which award category in 2021?

Answer: The Hugo Award for Best Novel.

11. Who gives voice to the Mexican Gothic audiobook?

Answer: Frankie Corzo.

12. The novel's atmosphere most directly draws on what classic kind of fiction?

Answer: Haunted-house fiction.

13. What is Noemí's surname?

Answer: Taboada.

MEXICAN GOTHIC FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What message sends Noemí to High Place?

Answer: A disturbing letter from Catalina.

2. How is Catalina related to Noemí?

Answer: She is Noemí's cousin.

3. Whose concern helps prompt Noemí's visit to High Place?

Answer: Her father's concern.

4. What kind of place is High Place?

Answer: An old house in the Mexican countryside.

5. The Doyle family originally has roots in which country?

Answer: England.

6. The Doyles became wealthy through what industry?

Answer: Mining.

7. What lies below High Place?

Answer: A local mining town.

8. How would you best describe the mood inside the house at High Place?

Answer: Strict and uncomfortable.

9. When Noemí first sees Catalina at High Place, how is Catalina doing?

Answer: She is weak and unwell.

10. Which Doyle is one of the younger members of the family?

Answer: Francis Doyle.

11. Which member of the household is described as stern?

Answer: Florence Doyle.

12. Who is the elderly patriarch of the Doyle family?

Answer: Howard Doyle.

EASY MEXICAN GOTHIC TRIVIA

1. In what year was Mexican Gothic published?

Answer: 2020

2. Who wrote Mexican Gothic?

Answer: Silvia Moreno-Garcia

3. Silvia Moreno-Garcia is best described as what kind of author?

Answer: A Mexican Canadian author

4. True or false: Mexican Gothic is a novel, true or false?

Answer: True

5. What genre is Mexican Gothic commonly described as?

Answer: Gothic horror

6. In which country is the story of Mexican Gothic set?

Answer: Mexico

7. Who is the protagonist of Mexican Gothic?

Answer: Noemí Taboada

8. Noemí starts investigating alarming claims made by her what?

Answer: Her cousin

9. What is the first name of Noemí's cousin in Mexican Gothic?

Answer: Catalina

10. Catalina claims that who is trying to kill her?

Answer: Her husband

11. After getting married, what surname does Catalina use?

Answer: Doyle

12. What is the full name of Catalina's husband?

Answer: Virgil Doyle

13. What is the name of the estate where much of the novel takes place?

Answer: High Place

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/mexican-gothic-trivia>