

Nature Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Nature trivia spans everything from towering redwoods and deep-ocean creatures to weather extremes and the hidden patterns of ecosystems. It offers a fun, family-friendly way to test what you know, pick up surprising facts, and appreciate how varied the natural world really is.

HARD NATURE TRIVIA

1. Who served as editor-in-chief of Nature before Magdalena Skipper and is a familiar modern editorial name?

Answer: Philip Campbell

2. Which editor became editor-in-chief of Nature in 2018?

Answer: Magdalena Skipper

3. Nature's readership is global, but centered on what broad professional community?

Answer: Scientists

4. Major papers on rising temperatures, models, and atmospheric change in Nature fall under what field?

Answer: Climate science

5. Inheritance and DNA-focused breakthrough papers in Nature belong to which discipline?

Answer: Genetics

6. Nature has published major papers in what field concerned with stars, galaxies, and the universe?

Answer: Astronomy

7. Which associated title focuses on health and biomedical research: Nature what?

Answer: Nature Medicine

8. Fill in the associated journal name: Nature _____ for heredity-focused research.?

Answer: Nature Genetics

9. Which associated Nature journal is devoted to physics?

Answer: Nature Physics

10. What is the exact associated title for Nature's chemistry journal?

Answer: Nature Chemistry

11. Which associated Nature journal centers specifically on climate change?

Answer: Nature Climate Change

12. Nature sends research papers out for what kind of review?

Answer: External peer review

13. Who became widely known for writing about hidden relationships among trees?

Answer: Peter Wohlleben

14. Who was the first editor of Nature?

Answer: Norman Lockyer

FUNNY NATURE TRIVIA

1. Which explorer had an impressively crowded r[^]sum[^]: Arctic exploration, science, and diplomacy?

Answer: Fridtjof Nansen

2. Who founded Nature, giving science a long-running place to show off?

Answer: Alexander Macmillan

3. Nature's first issue arrived in which year, long before anyone could hit refresh?

Answer: 1869

4. If readers want to send thoughtful back-and-forth instead of emojis, which Nature section fits?

Answer: Correspondence section

5. Nature is widely read by researchers in which sector besides academia?

Answer: Industry

6. Gravity made the news in Nature in what year for gravitational waves?

Answer: 2016

7. Nature publishes letters from whom?

Answer: Researchers

8. In citation terms, Nature sits among what kind of journals worldwide?

Answer: The most cited scientific journals

9. The first report on the ozone hole over Antarctica appeared in Nature in which year?

Answer: 1985

10. Nature is still in print as one of the world's oldest journals of what broad type?

Answer: General science journals

11. Which famous physicist has had papers published by Nature?

Answer: Stephen Hawking

12. Which Nobel-winning chemist is on Nature's list of published authors?

Answer: Dorothy Hodgkin

13. Who served as an editor of Nature with the rather splendid name Sir Richard Gregory?

Answer: Sir Richard Gregory

FUN NATURE TRIVIA

1. Which documentary won the Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature?

Answer: My Octopus Teacher

2. Which environmental writer is especially tied to warnings about the ecological effects of DDT?

Answer: Rachel Carson

3. Who helped popularize undersea exploration through films and television?

Answer: Jacques Cousteau

4. What Thoreau book drew lasting attention to simple living near nature?

Answer: Walden

5. Mount Tambora's eruption helped create the 'Year Without a Summer' in which year?

Answer: 1815

6. Who promoted soil-improving crop rotations in the American South?

Answer: George Washington Carver

7. Which naturalist is often called the Birdman of India?

Answer: Salim Ali

8. Debates over preserving spectacular landscapes often point to which iconic valley?

Answer: Yosemite Valley

9. Which lake is famous for unusual limestone tufa towers along its shore?

Answer: Mono Lake

10. A dense cluster of limestone karst islands is a hallmark of which bay?

Answer: Ha Long Bay

11. The Giant's Causeway, known for basalt columns, is in what part of the UK?

Answer: Northern Ireland

12. Who became widely known for studying mountain gorillas in Rwanda?

Answer: Dian Fossey

13. My Octopus Teacher took home its Oscar in what year?

Answer: 2021

NATURE FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Wangari Maathai founded which movement in Kenya?

Answer: The Green Belt Movement

2. Earth Day was first held in what year?

Answer: 1970

3. Yellowstone National Park was established in which year?

Answer: 1872

4. The eruption that dramatically reshaped part of Washington state happened at Mount St. Helens in what year?

Answer: 1980

5. Whose pea plant experiments became foundational to modern genetics?

Answer: Gregor Mendel

6. Which book helped turn pesticide concerns into a major public issue?

Answer: Silent Spring

7. Name the famous geyser known for its eruptions in Yellowstone.?

Answer: Old Faithful

8. Thoreau's experiment in deliberate living is strongly tied to which pond?

Answer: Walden Pond

9. Which lake is renowned as the deepest in the world?

Answer: Lake Baikal

10. What waterfall is widely cited as the world's tallest uninterrupted one?

Answer: Angel Falls

11. Which falls stretch across the border between Argentina and Brazil?

Answer: Iguazu Falls

12. Who is closely associated with long fieldwork on wild chimpanzees in Tanzania?

Answer: Jane Goodall

EASY NATURE TRIVIA

1. Which U.S. president is especially linked with expanding American conservation efforts?

Answer: Theodore Roosevelt

2. Steve Irwin was widely known by what nickname?

Answer: The Crocodile Hunter

3. At high northern latitudes, what sky glow is most commonly seen?

Answer: Northern Lights

4. What are the auroras most commonly seen at high southern latitudes called?

Answer: Southern Lights

5. Which national park is famous for both geothermal features and wildlife?

Answer: Yellowstone National Park

6. Whose documentaries helped make natural history a global TV staple?

Answer: David Attenborough

7. What kind of publication is Nature?

Answer: A weekly scientific journal

8. Nature is published in which language?

Answer: English

9. Nature is especially known for publishing what kind of research?

Answer: Peer-reviewed research

10. What type of articles does Nature publish when reporting new scientific findings?

Answer: Original research articles

11. Across what broad field does Nature cover research?

Answer: The natural sciences

12. How often is Nature issued?

Answer: Weekly

13. Nature's website gives readers what kind of access to articles?

Answer: Online access

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/nature>