

Radiohead Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Radiohead trivia spans the band's origins in Abingdon, Oxfordshire, in 1985 and the five musicians who shaped its identity: Thom Yorke, Jonny Greenwood, Colin Greenwood, Ed O'Brien, and Philip Selway. From early alternative rock success to their reputation for stylistic experimentation, these questions offer a quick, factual challenge for casual fans and devoted listeners alike.

HARD RADIOHEAD TRIVIA

1. Which Radiohead release from 1992 came before the band's run of full-length albums?

Answer: Drill

2. Radiohead's debut EP "Drill" came out on which label?

Answer: EMI

3. What was Radiohead's first album to reach number one in the United States?

Answer: Kid A

4. After its initial release approach, "In Rainbows" was later issued physically through which label?

Answer: XL Recordings

5. Count carefully: how many tracks are on Radiohead's "The King of Limbs"?

Answer: Eight

6. On the standard edition, how many tracks does "A Moon Shaped Pool" contain?

Answer: 11

7. In what year did the archival project "Kid A Mnesia" arrive?

Answer: 2021

8. "Kid A Mnesia" merges material from which two Radiohead albums?

Answer: Kid A and Amnesiac

9. Which live Radiohead release from 2001 has the subtitle "Live Recordings"?

Answer: I Might Be Wrong: Live Recordings

10. Name the 1993 Radiohead single with the gloriously abrupt title that sounds like a self-own.?

Answer: Pop Is Dead

11. Radiohead recorded "Spectre" for what major film franchise?

Answer: James Bond

12. "Man of War" traces back to work done during the era of which Radiohead album?

Answer: OK Computer

13. Which later-officially-released Radiohead song had already been performed live in the 1990s before turning up in 2017?

Answer: I Promise

14. What year appears at the finish line for the release of "OKNOTOK 1997 2017"?

Answer: 2017

FUNNY RADIOHEAD TRIVIA

1. Which Radiohead album title sounds like it already introduced itself at a party by using the first name Pablo?

Answer: Pablo Honey

2. How many words are packed into the album title "Hail to the Thief" as if it needed the full sentence budget?

Answer: four

3. Which word in "A Moon Shaped Pool" makes the album sound just a little more cosmic than your average swimming spot?

Answer: Moon

4. In the album title "The King of Limbs," which royal word strolls in like it owns the place?

Answer: King

5. Radiohead kept "Kid A" extremely short: what is the one-letter second word in that title?

Answer: A

6. Which Radiohead album title begins with the letters O and K, like a machine giving a very calm thumbs-up?

Answer: OK Computer

7. Which Radiohead song title looks less like a title and more like a rebellious math worksheet?

Answer: $2 + 2 = 5$

8. What medical device appears right in the title of the Radiohead song "My Iron Lung"?

Answer: iron lung

9. Which animal prowls into the title of the Radiohead song "Wolf at the Door"?

Answer: Wolf

10. Which Radiohead song shares its title with the familiar phrase for a fragile stack of playing cards?

Answer: House of Cards

11. Which Radiohead song title goes plural on sharp objects by using the word "Knives"?

Answer: Knives Out

12. Which Radiohead song title sounds exactly like an order you might hear five minutes past bedtime?

Answer: Go to Sleep

13. In the title "Where I End and You Begin," which two pronouns are doing all the emotional heavy lifting?

Answer: I and You

FUN RADIOHEAD TRIVIA

1. Which Grammy category did "OK Computer" win for Radiohead?

Answer: Best Alternative Music Album

2. Radiohead took home a Grammy for "Amnesiac" but for what, exactly?

Answer: Best Recording Package

3. What year did Radiohead get inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame?

Answer: 2019

4. Radiohead's "The King of Limbs" sprouted into the world in what year?

Answer: 2011

5. If your calendar says 2003, which Radiohead album had just arrived: "Hail to the Thief" or "Kid A"?

Answer: Hail to the Thief

6. "Kid A" climbed all the way to number 1 on which UK chart?

Answer: The UK Albums Chart

7. What unusual pricing approach did Radiohead use when "In Rainbows" first appeared online?

Answer: It was offered as a pay-what-you-want download.

8. Part of "OK Computer" was recorded at which place with the very un-rock-star-sounding name St Catherine's Court?

Answer: St Catherine's Court

9. Who is the longtime producer most closely associated with Radiohead?

Answer: Nigel Godrich

10. Who created much of Radiohead's album artwork?

Answer: Stanley Donwood

11. Which single from "A Moon Shaped Pool" sounds like a threat but is actually just the title?

Answer: Burn the Witch

12. Which "A Moon Shaped Pool" single has the sleepiest title of the bunch?

Answer: Daydreaming

13. On which Radiohead album would you find "Lotus Flower" blooming?

Answer: The King of Limbs

RADIOHEAD FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Before the band became famous as Radiohead, what earlier name did the group use?

Answer: On a Friday

2. Radiohead borrowed its band name from a song by which group?

Answer: Talking Heads

3. What is the title of the song that inspired the name Radiohead?

Answer: Radio Head

4. All five members of Radiohead went to the same school. What was it called?

Answer: Abingdon School

5. What year was Thom Yorke born?

Answer: 1968

6. Which birth year belongs to Jonny Greenwood?

Answer: 1971

7. Colin Greenwood was born in what year?

Answer: 1969

8. Philip Selway's birth year is which of these?

Answer: 1967

9. Besides singing, Thom Yorke also plays which two instruments in Radiohead?

Answer: guitar and piano

10. Jonny Greenwood doesn't stop at guitar-related dutiesâ what other instrument does he also play?

Answer: keyboards

11. Which band member contributes backing vocals?

Answer: Ed O'Brien

12. In the early 1990s, Radiohead signed with which record label?

Answer: Parlophone

EASY RADIOHEAD TRIVIA

1. In what year did Radiohead form?

Answer: 1985

2. Radiohead got their start in which place?

Answer: Abingdon, Oxfordshire, England

3. Radiohead are best described as what kind of band?

Answer: An English rock band

4. Who is the lead singer of Radiohead?

Answer: Thom Yorke

5. Which Radiohead member plays guitar and is named Greenwood?

Answer: Jonny Greenwood

6. Who is Radiohead's bassist?

Answer: Colin Greenwood

7. Which member of Radiohead is guitarist Ed O'Brien?

Answer: Ed O'Brien

8. Who sits behind the drums in Radiohead?

Answer: Philip Selway

9. What is the title of Radiohead's 1992 song that became one of their best-known tracks?

Answer: Creep

10. What is Radiohead's debut album called?

Answer: Pablo Honey

11. In what year was "Pablo Honey" released?

Answer: 1993

12. Which year is associated with a key milestone for Radiohead?

Answer: The Bends

13. What year did Radiohead release "OK Computer"?

Answer: 1997

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/radiohead-trivia>