

Rebecca Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts
Printable Trivia Pack

Rebecca trivia explores the atmosphere, characters, and literary legacy of Daphne du Maurier's 1938 novel. Centered on an unnamed young bride, a brooding widower, and the powerful lingering presence of Rebecca, the story became a landmark of modern Gothic fiction.

HARD REBECCA TRIVIA

1. Which literary prize did Rebecca receive in 2000 when it was honored as Best Novel of the Century?

Answer: The Anthony Award for Best Novel of the Century.

2. If you were holding the original American edition of Rebecca, which publisher's name would appear on the title page?

Answer: Doubleday, Doran.

3. To whom did Daphne du Maurier dedicate Rebecca?

Answer: Her husband, Frederick Browning.

4. At the end of the inquest, what official conclusion is reached about Rebecca's death?

Answer: That it was ruled a suicide.

5. When Maxim finally tells the second Mrs de Winter what happened in the cottage, what does he admit he did to Rebecca?

Answer: He confesses that he shot Rebecca after she taunted him with a claim that she was pregnant.

6. Which doctor's revelation blows apart Rebecca's story about expecting a child?

Answer: Dr Baker reveals that Rebecca had terminal cancer.

7. What piece of writing does Favell brandish in an attempt to pressure Maxim?

Answer: Rebecca's note arranging a meeting.

8. During the inquiry, what is the name of the magistrate overseeing proceedings?

Answer: Mr Tabb.

9. Who serves as the local head gardener at Manderley?

Answer: Robert.

10. Which maid helps the second Mrs de Winter at Manderley?

Answer: Clarice.

11. Name Manderley's butler in the novel.?

Answer: Frith.

12. In the novel's framing sections, what kind of places do Maxim and the narrator drift through while living abroad?

Answer: Hotels on the Continent.

13. Rebecca doesn't simply wash ashore in the novel. In what vessel is her body discovered when it is raised from the bay?

Answer: A cabin cruiser.

14. What is the name of the cove by Rebecca's cottage?

Answer: Kerrith Bay.

FUNNY REBECCA TRIVIA

1. Before the novel gets down to Manderley business, what kind of opening does Rebecca use instead of showing Rebecca alive and well?

Answer: It opens with a dream about revisiting a house.

2. In Monte Carlo, the narrator and Maxim let what move at a speed that would terrify any cautious bridesmaid?

Answer: Their marriage happens after a very short acquaintance.

3. At Manderley, which single letter manages to behave like a full-time bully on paper goods?

Answer: The letter R on monogrammed stationery.

4. What room is kept in such perfect condition that it feels less like interior decorating and more like canonization?

Answer: Rebecca's bedroom at Manderley.

5. During Mrs Danvers's deeply normal and not-at-all-chilling room tour, what item of Rebecca's does she show the narrator?

Answer: Rebecca's nightdress.

6. Which resident of Manderley is a spaniel and, frankly, one of the least stressful beings in the house?

Answer: Jasper.

7. The narrator often runs an imaginary competition in her head. Who wins the 'social duties' category every time?

Answer: Rebecca, as imagined by the narrator.

8. What everyday embarrassment makes the second Mrs de Winter feel like she's accidentally breaking into her own life?

Answer: She doesn't know where things are kept in her own house.

9. When Maxim is being teasing rather than poetic, what nickname does he use for the narrator?

Answer: "My little fool."

10. After becoming Mrs de Winter, what surprisingly small task makes the narrator feel like she needs a legal team and a calligraphy tutor?

Answer: She worries about how to sign her new married name.

11. Which room quietly turns breakfast into a daily exam in awkward domestic adjustment?

Answer: The breakfast room at Manderley.

12. Rebecca's handwriting is not described as shy, timid, or apologetic. How is it described?

Answer: As bold and distinctive.

13. Which dramatic Manderley plants seem determined to keep Rebecca in the atmosphere whether anyone asked them to or not?

Answer: The rhododendrons.

FUN REBECCA TRIVIA

1. Who directed the 1940 film version of Rebecca, bringing Manderley to the screen with maximum suspense?

Answer: Alfred Hitchcock directed the 1940 film adaptation of Rebecca.

2. At the Oscars, what top prize did the 1940 film Rebecca take home?

Answer: The 1940 film Rebecca won the Academy Award for Best Picture.

3. Which actor played Maxim de Winter in Hitchcock's 1940 Rebecca?

Answer: Laurence Olivier played Maxim de Winter in Hitchcock's Rebecca.

4. Who portrayed the second Mrs de Winter in the 1940 film adaptation?

Answer: Joan Fontaine played the second Mrs de Winter in the 1940 film.

5. Whose performance as Mrs Danvers chilled the halls of the 1940 Rebecca?

Answer: Judith Anderson played Mrs Danvers in the 1940 film.

6. Before Rebecca haunted readers, which writer in Daphne du Maurier's family wrote Trilby?

Answer: George du Maurier, Daphne's grandfather, wrote the novel Trilby.

7. Rebecca wasn't drafted in a foggy Cornish attic aloneâ du Maurier wrote much of it while staying in which city?

Answer: Daphne du Maurier drafted much of Rebecca while staying in Alexandria, Egypt.

8. What did the success of Rebecca dramatically boost for Daphne du Maurier?

Answer: The success of Rebecca greatly increased Daphne du Maurier's international fame.

9. Manderley may be fictional, but it was inspired in part by which Cornish house linked to du Maurier?

Answer: Manderley was inspired in part by Menabilly.

10. True or false: A BBC television adaptation of Rebecca aired in 1979.?

Answer: True

11. Which year saw the BBC put Rebecca on television?

Answer: The BBC television adaptation of Rebecca aired in 1979.

12. Rebecca returned to British TV as a two-part adaptation on ITV in what year?

Answer: A two-part ITV adaptation of Rebecca was broadcast in 1997.

13. What year did Netflix release its film adaptation of Rebecca?

Answer: The Netflix film adaptation of Rebecca was released in 2020.

REBECCA FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Before she marries Maxim de Winter, what kind of job does the second Mrs de Winter have?

Answer: She works as a paid companion.

2. Who is the narrator working for when the story begins in Monte Carlo?

Answer: Mrs Van Hopper

3. What is the name of Maxim de Winter's sister?

Answer: Beatrice Lacy

4. Beatrice Lacy is married to whom?

Answer: Giles Lacy

5. Which loyal estate manager works for Maxim de Winter?

Answer: Frank Crawley

6. Rebecca kept a small place by the sea on the Manderley estate. What was it?

Answer: A boat cottage

7. A shipwreck leads to the discovery of what sunken object?

Answer: Rebecca's boat

8. How is Jack Favell related to Rebecca?

Answer: He is her cousin.

9. Which beachcomber knew Rebecca?

Answer: Ben

10. After Rebecca's body is identified, which colonel helps take part in the investigation?

Answer: Colonel Julyan

11. Which London physician knew an important secret about Rebecca's health?

Answer: Dr Baker

12. Rebecca's body is first identified by what item?

Answer: A ring

EASY REBECCA TRIVIA

1. Who wrote the novel Rebecca?

Answer: Daphne du Maurier wrote Rebecca.

2. In what year was Rebecca first published?

Answer: Rebecca was first published in 1938.

3. Rebecca is most commonly described as what kind of novel?

Answer: It is commonly classified as a Gothic novel.

4. Daphne du Maurier was an author from which country?

Answer: She was English.

5. What is the name of the estate where much of Rebecca takes place?

Answer: The estate is called Manderley.

6. Who is the widower in Rebecca?

Answer: The widower is Maxim de Winter.

7. Does the first-person narrator of Rebecca have a personal name given in the novel?

Answer: No. The narrator is never given a personal name.

8. When the story begins, which title character is already dead?

Answer: Rebecca is already dead when the story begins.

9. Which words begin Rebecca's famous opening line?

Answer: It begins with the words "Last night I dreamt I went."

10. Rebecca is set largely in which English region?

Answer: It is set largely in Cornwall.

11. Who works as the housekeeper at Manderley?

Answer: Mrs Danvers is the housekeeper at Manderley.

12. In what place does the narrator first meet Maxim de Winter?

Answer: She meets him in Monte Carlo.

13. What is Maxim de Winter's marital status when the narrator meets him?

Answer: He is a widower.

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/rebecca-trivia>