

Reddit Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts

Printable Trivia Pack

Reddit trivia highlights the history and quirks of an American social news aggregation and forum platform built around user-submitted links, text, images, and videos. Since its 2005 launch, Reddit has become known for its vast network of topic-based communities and its voting system, which helps surface popular posts and conversations.

HARD REDDIT TRIVIA

1. If a subreddit is locked down so that only a pre-selected group can submit posts, who is allowed to post?

Answer: Approved users only can post.

2. What nickname do users commonly give Reddit's redesign that launched in 2018?

Answer: Users commonly call it New Reddit.

3. What built-in rule system do many communities rely on to automatically filter or remove posts?

Answer: Automoderator rules.

4. Beyond its feed mechanics, Reddit also fits what older internet format?

Answer: A forum-style social media platform.

5. Reddit's central loop is built from what two-part combination?

Answer: Content submission and community voting.

6. Which pair of post styles does Reddit explicitly support within its posting system?

Answer: Media posts and text-based posts.

7. At its base, Reddit's content pool is made up of what kind of material?

Answer: User-submitted content.

8. What dual function best describes the way Reddit operates at a high level?

Answer: Aggregation and discussion.

9. On Reddit, submissions don't have to stay on-site. What off-platform item can a user submit?

Answer: External links.

10. If you're categorizing Reddit broadly on the internet map, what kind of service is it part of?

Answer: Social platforms.

11. What kind of publishing is included directly in Reddit's submission system besides linking out?

Answer: Text publishing.

12. Whose votes drive Reddit's interaction model on submitted content?

Answer: Other members' votes.

13. Reddit doesn't limit users to one rigid post template. What does it accept instead?

Answer: Multiple submission formats.

14. Before Reddit Premium existed, what was the earlier paid membership program called?

Answer: Reddit Gold.

FUNNY REDDIT TRIVIA

1. Before Reddit became the place where your lunch break mysteriously vanishes, what kind of idea was it originally pitched as?

Answer: A mobile food-ordering idea.

2. Who reportedly told Reddit's founders, in effect, 'maybe don't make this the sandwich app timeline'?

Answer: Paul Graham.

3. Which person joined Reddit shortly after its founding through the Infogami merger?

Answer: Aaron Swartz.

4. In Reddit's earliest days, what did the founders say they used to make the site look less like an empty party with chips and no guests?

Answer: Fake starter accounts.

5. Which well-known Reddit figure became especially associated with coordinating many celebrity AMAs?

Answer: Victoria Taylor.

6. After years of depending heavily on outside image hosts, what feature did Reddit finally introduce itself?

Answer: Native image hosting.

7. Before being phased out, what was Reddit's virtual currency for buying awards?

Answer: Reddit coins.

8. Which April Fools' Reddit experiment sounds like a robot trying to remember a word processor command?

Answer: r/sequence.

9. After the Condé Nast era, Reddit later became part of whose portfolio?

Answer: Advance Publications.

10. What kind of content-sharing is built right into Reddit's submission system, no treasure map required?

Answer: Link sharing.

11. Reddit posts aren't limited to tossing links into the void. What else can user submissions include?

Answer: Self-authored text.

12. What does Reddit rely on to evaluate submissions: one all-knowing editor or its members jumping in?

Answer: Member participation.

13. On Reddit, what affects how content is received: member voting or horoscope alignment?

Answer: Member voting.

FUN REDDIT TRIVIA

1. What April Fools' Day experiment let Redditors fight over a giant shared pixel canvas in 2017?

Answer: r/place

2. Which feature did Reddit add later so users could upload clips directly instead of only linking out?

Answer: native video uploads

3. In what year did Reddit go public on the New York Stock Exchange?

Answer: 2024

4. At its core, Reddit is best described as what kind of site?

Answer: A social news aggregation site

5. Reddit is based in which country?

Answer: The United States

6. Who can create posts on Reddit: only moderators, only admins, or regular users too?

Answer: Regular users can create user-submitted posts

7. On Reddit, who gets to rate content besides the person who posted it?

Answer: Other members

8. If a Reddit post says more with pixels than paragraphs, what kind of submission might it be?

Answer: An image post

9. When a Reddit submission moves instead of sits still, what format could it be?

Answer: A video post

10. A Reddit post that mainly sends you somewhere else on the web is what type of submission?

Answer: A link post

11. True or false: Reddit content can be approved or disapproved by votes.?

Answer: True

12. What two directions does Reddit's voting system allow?

Answer: Positive and negative votes

13. Who posts videos on Reddit according to the platform's submission setup?

Answer: Registered users

REDDIT FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In what year was Reddit founded?

Answer: 2005

2. Which Reddit co-founder later returned to the CEO role in 2015?

Answer: Steve Huffman

3. Which co-founder of Reddit shares the founding credit with Steve Huffman?

Answer: Alexis Ohanian

4. What is the name of Reddit's mascot?

Answer: Snoo

5. Reddit splits discussions into what kinds of communities?

Answer: subreddits

6. On Reddit, what can users do to posts and comments to show approval or disapproval?

Answer: upvoted or downvoted

7. What does the Reddit abbreviation AMA stand for?

Answer: Ask Me Anything

8. Which company acquired Reddit in 2006?

Answer: Condé Nast

9. What is the common name for people who use Reddit?

Answer: redditors

10. What prefix appears before subreddit names?

Answer: r/

11. True or false: Every subreddit must rely only on sitewide policies and cannot add its own rules.?

Answer: False

12. Which set lists the kinds of content registered users can submit on Reddit?

Answer: links, text posts, images, and videos

EASY REDDIT TRIVIA

1. What kind of written content can registered users submit on Reddit besides comments?

Answer: Text posts

2. Which type of visual content can registered users post on Reddit?

Answer: Images

3. If someone uploads a clip to Reddit, what kind of submission is that?

Answer: Videos

4. When other members like a Reddit post, what can they do to it?

Answer: Upvote it

5. What is the opposite of an upvote on Reddit?

Answer: A downvote

6. Reddit is commonly described as what kind of site?

Answer: A discussion site

7. At its core, Reddit is a platform for what?

Answer: Online discussion

8. Reddit is widely described as what kind of platform?

Answer: A social media platform

9. A Reddit submission can be just a block of writing by itself. What is that called?

Answer: A text post

10. How is community feedback commonly shown on Reddit?

Answer: Through upvotes and downvotes

11. How are Reddit comments usually arranged under a post?

Answer: In threaded conversation trees

12. What can users earn on Reddit from votes on posts and comments?

Answer: Karma

13. What is the name of Reddit's subscription membership?

Answer: Reddit Premium

Source: <https://quizhoot.com/trivia/reddit-trivia>