

Sherlock Holmes Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Sherlock Holmes trivia explores one of literature's most famous fictional detectives, created by British author Arthur Conan Doyle in the late 19th century. Known for his extraordinary powers of observation, deduction, and forensic reasoning, Holmes became a defining figure in detective fiction through stories that also introduced Dr. Watson, Baker Street, and memorable adversaries such as Professor Moriarty.

HARD SHERLOCK HOLMES TRIVIA

1. In "The Musgrave Ritual," the mystery ultimately points to what kind of hidden prize?

Answer: A long-buried royal treasure.

2. What is the hidden object in "The Musgrave Ritual" connected with in the end?

Answer: A long-buried royal treasure.

3. Canon trick question: what college at Holmes's university is explicitly named?

Answer: None; Holmes's university college is never named in the canon.

4. If a super-fan asks you to name Holmes's college from the canon, what is the correct response?

Answer: It is not named in the canon.

5. Which case does Holmes identify as his first real investigation?

Answer: "The Gloria Scott."

6. Holmes traces the start of his true detective career to which adventure?

Answer: "The Gloria Scott."

7. In "The Engineer's Thumb," what injury gives the story its title?

Answer: A severed thumb.

8. What does the engineer lose in "The Engineer's Thumb"?

Answer: A thumb.

9. Violet Hunter accepts what sort of role in "The Copper Beeches"?

Answer: A governess position.

10. Which employment arrangement sits at the center of "The Copper Beeches"?

Answer: A governess position taken by Violet Hunter.

11. In "His Last Bow," Holmes's adversary is which German agent?

Answer: Von Bork.

12. Name the espionage foe Holmes outmaneuvers in "His Last Bow."?

Answer: Von Bork.

13. "His Last Bow" unfolds on the eve of which global conflict?

Answer: The First World War.

14. What looming war forms the backdrop for "His Last Bow"?

Answer: The First World War.

FUNNY SHERLOCK HOLMES TRIVIA

1. When Holmes pauses dramatically instead of blurting out the answer, who usually gets left marinating in suspense?

Answer: Dr. Watson is the one Holmes sometimes keeps in suspense before revealing the solution.

2. True or false: Holmes always explains his reasoning immediately, the moment he has it.?

Answer: False

3. What flashy party trick can Holmes pull off the instant a new visitor arrives?

Answer: He can greet the visitor with a startlingly accurate personal deduction.

4. Sherlock Holmes can sometimes build an entire solution from what amount of evidence?

Answer: A single speck of evidence can be enough for him to unravel the whole story.

5. If a case is hot but the conversation is not, how might Holmes react to ordinary small talk?

Answer: He can seem aloof when social small talk interrupts a case.

6. What detective weather system tends to roll in when no interesting case is available?

Answer: Holmes falls into long stretches of boredom when no case interests him.

7. What happens to Holmes the moment an intriguing mystery appears?

Answer: He becomes suddenly energetic as soon as an intriguing mystery appears.

8. True or false: Holmes always gives direct, tidy answers before he is ready to explain the full case.?

Answer: False

9. When someone thinks they have fooled Holmes, what tone might slip into his voice?

Answer: He can sound amused when someone thinks they have fooled him.

10. How does Holmes like to time the moment he exposes the culprit?

Answer: He enjoys using dramatic timing for the reveal.

11. When Holmes is deep in thought, what indoor exercise routine is he most likely to perform for free?

Answer: He often paces the room intensely while thinking.

12. How does Holmes tend to react when official detectives miss what he sees as an obvious clue?

Answer: He can grow impatient when official detectives miss an obvious clue.

13. After a dazzling deduction, Holmes often sounds howâ as if he just commented on the weather?

Answer: He often speaks in a cool, matter-of-fact tone after a dazzling deduction.

FUN SHERLOCK HOLMES TRIVIA

1. When Holmes needs to fire off a speedy case update in the original stories, what form of message does he often use?

Answer: A telegram.

2. What fixture in Holmes's rooms makes 221B feel part detective den, part science lab?

Answer: A chemistry table.

3. Holmes can do what unusually specific bit of detective wizardry with cigar and tobacco remains?

Answer: He can identify different cigar and tobacco ashes.

4. In "A Scandal in Bohemia," Holmes slips into which disguise?

Answer: An elderly bookseller.

5. In "Silver Blaze," Holmes goes undercover as what rather scruffy-sounding figure?

Answer: A drunken groom.

6. What famous nickname does Holmes give Professor Moriarty?

Answer: The "Napoleon of crime."

7. Which old-school combat skill is Holmes said to be expert in?

Answer: Singlestick.

8. In "The Empty House," Holmes is described as knowing what martial art?

Answer: Baritsu.

9. To make enemies think he's home when he very much isn't, Holmes keeps what decoy in Baker Street?

Answer: A life-sized wax bust.

10. Who tries to shoot Holmes with an air-gun?

Answer: Colonel Moran.

11. What is the nickname of the street boys who help Holmes gather information?

Answer: The Baker Street Irregulars.

12. During one investigation, Holmes quietly stays at a country inn while posing as what?

Answer: A groom, undercover.

13. When a problem has Holmes pacing the floorboards, what instrument might Watson hear at very odd hours?

Answer: The violin.

SHERLOCK HOLMES FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What is the title of Sherlock Holmes's first full-length novel adventure?

Answer: A Study in Scarlet

2. Which novel comes second in the Sherlock Holmes series?

Answer: The Sign of Four

3. Who does Dr. Watson marry?

Answer: Mary Morstan

4. In "The Adventure of the Speckled Band," which woman comes to Holmes for help?

Answer: Helen Stoner

5. Who is the villain in "The Speckled Band"?

Answer: Dr. Grimesby Roylott

6. Which famous racehorse is at the center of the story "Silver Blaze"?

Answer: Silver Blaze

7. Before the horse vanished in "Silver Blaze," who was training it?

Answer: John Straker

8. What is the name of the race linked to the mystery in "Silver Blaze"?

Answer: Wessex Cup

9. Which horse trainer does Holmes confront in "Silver Blaze"?

Answer: Silas Brown

10. In "The Red-Headed League," what is the name of the pawnbroker who visits Holmes?

Answer: Jabez Wilson

11. Who is the supposed employer that appears in "The Red-Headed League"?

Answer: Duncan Ross

12. Who asks Holmes to find Hosmer Angel?

Answer: Mary Sutherland

EASY SHERLOCK HOLMES TRIVIA

1. Who created Sherlock Holmes?

Answer: Arthur Conan Doyle created Sherlock Holmes.

2. In what year did Sherlock Holmes first appear in print?

Answer: Sherlock Holmes first appeared in print in 1887.

3. What famous London street is Holmes's home address on?

Answer: Holmes lives on Baker Street.

4. Holmes calls himself what kind of investigator?

Answer: He describes himself as a consulting detective.

5. Who is Sherlock Holmes's close friend and usual chronicler?

Answer: Dr. John Watson is Holmes's close friend and usual chronicler.

6. Who is the landlady at 221B Baker Street?

Answer: Mrs. Hudson is the landlady at Baker Street.

7. Which musical instrument is Holmes famous for playing?

Answer: Holmes is famous for playing the violin.

8. Which Scotland Yard detective often works with Holmes?

Answer: Inspector Lestrade often works with Holmes.

9. Who is Sherlock Holmes's great criminal rival?

Answer: Professor Moriarty is Holmes's great criminal rival.

10. At what famous falls do Holmes and Moriarty struggle?

Answer: Holmes and Moriarty struggle at the Reichenbach Falls.

11. Which character appears in the story "A Scandal in Bohemia"?

Answer: Irene Adler appears in "A Scandal in Bohemia."

12. What is the name of Sherlock Holmes's older brother?

Answer: Sherlock Holmes's older brother is Mycroft Holmes.

13. When the King of Bohemia visits Holmes in disguise, what name does he use?

Answer: He uses the name Count Von Kramm.

Source: <https://quizhoot.com/trivia/sherlock-holmes-trivia>