

Street Food Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Street Food trivia explores the popular dishes, vendors, and local customs that have long made curbside eating part of daily life in cities around the world. From ancient market stalls to modern night markets and food carts, street food reflects migration, trade, and regional taste in a way few other dining traditions can. Expect a mix of easy, family-friendly, funny, and hard facts that make the subject approachable and surprisingly wide-ranging.

HARD STREET FOOD TRIVIA

1. Which immigrant community is specifically credited with influencing Mexico's al pastor through shawarma?

Answer: Lebanese immigrants

2. Bánh mì traces back to which historical period in Vietnam?

Answer: The French colonial period

3. In what year was Singapore's hawker culture added to UNESCO's Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity?

Answer: 2020

4. Jemaa el-Fnaa in Marrakesh received UNESCO recognition as a Masterpiece of Oral and Intangible Heritage in which year?

Answer: 2001

5. What is the name of the vertical spit traditionally used to cook taco al pastor?

Answer: Trompo

6. The word falafel is widely associated with usage from which language tradition in the Middle East?

Answer: Arabic

7. Kushari is often regarded as the national dish of which country?

Answer: Egypt

8. In Belgium, what is the specialized fries shop called?

Answer: Friterie

9. In Singapore and Malaysia, what term refers to a vendor selling ready-to-eat food?

Answer: Hawker

10. Peruvian anticuchos are often made from which specific cut of meat?

Answer: Beef heart

11. Mofongo, made from mashed fried plantains, is most strongly tied to the street-style eating of which place?

Answer: Puerto Rico

12. Bunny chow first originated in which South African city?

Answer: Durban

13. In Japanese food terms, the suffix "yaki" generally points to what kind of cooking?

Answer: Cooking with dry heat such as grilling or griddling

14. The name of the Mexican corn snack esquites comes from izquitl in which language?

Answer: Nahuatl

FUNNY STREET FOOD TRIVIA

1. If a takoyaki cook looks like they're doing tiny ball gymnastics, what tool are they often using to turn each piece round?

Answer: A pick.

2. In parts of northern India, pani puri answers to what other name?

Answer: Golgappa.

3. Bunny chow sounds like a rabbit's lunch plan, but it's actually a street food associated with which country?

Answer: South Africa.

4. Anticuchos are grilled skewers especially associated with which country?

Answer: Peru.

5. Kwek-kwek in the Philippines usually starts with what tiny main ingredient before the orange batter jumps in?

Answer: Quail eggs.

6. A quick toast sandwich in Singapore and Malaysia commonly features butter plus what spread?

Answer: Kaya.

7. What street-stall treat is especially associated with Hungary and nearby countries, and sounds like dessert borrowed a fireplace?

Answer: Chimney cake.

8. Which portable snack is made with egg wrapped in sausage meat and crumbs?

Answer: Scotch eggs.

9. If you're nibbling fish balls on skewers from a street vendor, which city is especially famous for that snack?

Answer: Hong Kong.

10. What Mexican street snack starts with a bag of chips and then says, "Sure, let's add sauces and mix-ins too"?

Answer: Tostilocos.

11. Which Philippine street-vendor snack is a fertilized duck egg?

Answer: Balut.

12. What Israeli pita sandwich commonly includes fried eggplant and egg?

Answer: Sabich.

13. Which Peruvian street sweet comes ring-shaped and is made with squash or sweet potato?

Answer: Picarones.

FUN STREET FOOD TRIVIA

1. If you're chasing authentic khao soi vibes, which part of Thailand should you head to rather than Bangkok?

Answer: Northern Thailand.

2. Bánh mì in Vietnam grew out of the bread traditions of which European country?

Answer: France.

3. A flaky flatbread star at many street stalls in Malaysia is called what?

Answer: Roti canai.

4. Onigiri often shows up dressed in a dark edible jacket. What is that wrapper usually called?

Answer: Nori.

5. Yakitori keeps it very literal: those skewers are usually made with what meat?

Answer: Chicken.

6. Which region is especially known for grab-and-go burek?

Answer: The Balkans.

7. What are cevapi: noodle rolls, grilled sausages, or stuffed dumplings?

Answer: Grilled sausages.

8. Poffertjes are tiny fluffy pancakes you'd commonly spot at fairs and markets in which country?

Answer: The Netherlands.

9. Street-food geometry break: samosas are usually what shape?

Answer: Triangular.

10. In Mexico, tamales are traditionally wrapped in corn husks or what other leaf option?

Answer: Banana leaves.

11. What gives tteokbokki its famously chewy bite?

Answer: Rice cakes.

12. Jerk chicken is a well-known street food from which island nation?

Answer: Jamaica.

13. Esquites skip the cob and usually arrive in what kind of container?

Answer: A cup.

STREET FOOD FAMILY TRIVIA

1. In Italy, what chilly treat is commonly sold for takeaway from street-facing shops?

Answer: Gelato

2. Which Mexican street food is corn on the cob usually topped with things like cheese and chili?

Answer: Elote

3. Belgian fries are often handed to you in what kind of container?

Answer: A paper cone

4. Döner kebab became especially popular as street food in which city?

Answer: Berlin

5. Halo-halo is a colorful cold dessert often sold from small shops and stalls in which country?

Answer: The Philippines

6. Corn dogs are deep-fried sausages coated in batter and served on what?

Answer: A stick

7. Jhal muri, a puffed rice snack, is associated with which city?

Answer: Kolkata

8. What are the corn cakes commonly sold as street food in Colombia and Venezuela called?

Answer: Arepas

9. Before becoming a global grab-and-go drink, bubble tea was created in which place?

Answer: Taiwan

10. Which ring-shaped bread is sold by street vendors in Istanbul?

Answer: Simit

11. True or false: pani puri is usually eaten in a single bite.?

Answer: True

12. Which filled pastries are commonly sold as handheld food in Latin America?

Answer: Empanadas

EASY STREET FOOD TRIVIA

1. Tacos al pastor are famously associated with which city?

Answer: Mexico City

2. In takoyaki, what sea creature does the name refer to?

Answer: Octopus

3. Falafel is commonly made from ground chickpeas or what other bean?

Answer: Fava beans

4. What melted ingredient is traditional in a quesadilla?

Answer: Cheese

5. Deep-frying means cooking food fully immersed in what?

Answer: Hot oil

6. Which city is widely known for its street food culture: Bangkok, Berlin, or Boston?

Answer: Bangkok

7. Mumbai is especially famous for which street snack?

Answer: Vada pav

8. In Singapore, what are the places called where many food stalls gather in one spot?

Answer: Hawker centres

9. Open-air food stalls in Marrakesh are famously found in which square?

Answer: Jemaa el-Fnaa

10. Brussels is strongly associated with which sweet street treat?

Answer: Waffles

11. Hot dogs are commonly sold by street vendors in which city?

Answer: New York City

12. Which classic handheld snack is often sold by street carts in many cities?

Answer: Pretzels

13. Satay is usually served on what simple item?

Answer: Skewers

Source: <https://triviagong.com/themes/street-food>