

The Beatles' solo careers Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

The Beatles' solo careers trivia highlights the distinct paths each member took after the Liverpool band split in 1970. From chart-topping albums and landmark concerts to unexpected collaborations and cultural milestones, their post-Beatles work helped define rock and pop across the 1970s and beyond.

HARD THE BEATLES' SOLO CAREERS TRIVIA

1. Which live album did George Harrison help turn into a Grammy Album of the Year winner in 1973, contrary to the false claim that John Lennon won it as a principal artist in 1971?

Answer: The Concert for Bangladesh

2. Paul McCartney and Wings were busted for marijuana possession in January 1980 in what country, derailing the planned tour there?

Answer: Japan

3. On Ringo Starr's 1974 album Goodnight Vienna, which older pop song did he cover?

Answer: Only You (And You Alone)

4. What song gave John Lennon his only solo U.S. No. 1 single during his lifetime?

Answer: Whatever Gets You thru the Night

5. What is the name of the company Paul McCartney founded in the early 1970s that grew into a major music publishing operation?

Answer: MPL Communications

6. George Harrison launched which record label in 1974?

Answer: Dark Horse Records

7. Which Ringo Starr hit had George Harrison in the producer's chair?

Answer: Back Off Boogaloo

8. At Madison Square Garden in 1974, Lennon joined Elton John for a performance of which Beatles song?

Answer: Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds

9. Paul McCartney's first major tour in more than a decade began in what year?

Answer: 1989

10. Which 1988 George Harrison single winked directly at his Beatles history?

Answer: When We Was Fab

11. Ringo Starr hit No. 1 in the U.S. in 1972 singing lead on which oldie?

Answer: You're Sixteen

12. John Lennon later gave what nickname to the period that began with his 1973 separation from Yoko Ono?

Answer: Lost Weekend

13. Elvis Costello collaborated with Paul McCartney on songs for which 1989 album?

Answer: Flowers in the Dirt

14. Which Beatle was made a knight in 2018 during his solo-career era honors roll?

Answer: Ringo Starr

FUNNY THE BEATLES' SOLO CAREERS TRIVIA

1. What gloriously over-the-top pseudonym did Paul McCartney use for the 1977 album "Thrillington"?

Answer: Percy "Thrills" Thrillington

2. In 1969, John Lennon and Yoko Ono mailed what tiny item to world leaders as a peace gesture?

Answer: acorns

3. When Paul McCartney teamed up with producer Youth, what name did he record under?

Answer: The Fireman

4. What was the name of the 1969 press event in Vienna where John Lennon and Yoko Ono turned a bag into a concept?

Answer: Bagism

5. George Harrison titled a 1976 album with a wink at both his age and vinyl speed. What was it called?

Answer: Thirty Three & 1/3

6. Which Ringo Starr album title sounds like your nan picked the playlist in 1970?

Answer: Sentimental Journey

7. Paul McCartney's 1978 TV special borrowed its name from a compilation album. What was the special called?

Answer: Wings Greatest

8. In John Lennon and Yoko Ono's wedding announcement, they said, "from this day on, we are" what?

Answer: two in one

9. George Harrison's 1974 North American tour had a nickname with a slightly dramatic stable vibe. What was it?

Answer: Dark Horse Tour

10. What was the title of Ringo Starr's 1975 album that sounds like a bedtime send-off from Austria?

Answer: Goodnight Vienna

11. During his 1970s separation period, John Lennon briefly used what melodramatic alias?

Answer: Mel Torment

12. George Harrison pops up as a singing caricature in the music video for which song?

Answer: Got My Mind Set on You

13. In 2021, Paul McCartney issued a reworked companion to "McCartney III." What was this album called?

Answer: McCartney III Imagined

FUN THE BEATLES' SOLO CAREERS TRIVIA

1. Which film company did George Harrison co-found in 1978, proving a Beatle could also get the credits rolling?

Answer: Handmade Films

2. Paul McCartney teamed up with which pop megastar for the duet "Say Say Say"?

Answer: Michael Jackson

3. At what festival did John Lennon co-headline a 1969 Plastic Ono Band performance?

Answer: Toronto Rock and Roll Revival festival

4. On TV, Ringo Starr worked the rails as which series' narrator Mr. Conductor?

Answer: Shining Time Station

5. Which 2000 Paul McCartney release wandered into electronic collage territory instead of straightforward pop?

Answer: Liverpool Sound Collage

6. George Harrison's 1991 concerts in Japan were performed with which guitar hero?

Answer: Eric Clapton

7. John Lennon's 1974 surprise guest spot with Elton John took place at what famous venue?

Answer: Madison Square Garden

8. Which animated TV institution featured Ringo Starr appearing as himself in 1991?

Answer: The Simpsons

9. What was the title of Paul McCartney's 1993 international hit with the uplifting name?

Answer: Hope of Deliverance

10. Which Monty Python film did George Harrison back through Handmade Films in 1979?

Answer: Life of Brian

11. John Lennon and Yoko Ono held their famous 1969 "Bed-In for Peace" in which city?

Answer: Montreal

12. In the 1981 comedy "Caveman," Ringo Starr played what holy figure?

Answer: The Pope

13. From what ancient Roman landmark did Paul McCartney perform a livestream concert in 2003?

Answer: The Colosseum in Rome

THE BEATLES' SOLO CAREERS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who did Paul McCartney marry in 1969?

Answer: Linda McCartney

2. John Lennon and Yoko Ono's son, born in 1975, is named what?

Answer: Sean Lennon

3. What is the name of George Harrison's only child?

Answer: Dhani Harrison

4. Which of Ringo Starr's sons became a drummer and is named Zak?

Answer: Zak Starkey

5. Paul McCartney's daughter Stella became famous in which creative field?

Answer: Fashion design

6. Julian Lennon was born during John Lennon's marriage to whom?

Answer: Cynthia Lennon

7. George Harrison married Olivia Arias in what year?

Answer: 1978

8. Which actress did Ringo Starr marry in 1981?

Answer: Barbara Bach

9. On Paul McCartney's album "Flaming Pie," which song was written after Maureen Starkey's death?

Answer: Little Willow

10. John Lennon gave a nickname to his late-1970s years at home with Sean. What did he call that time?

Answer: his househusband period

11. George Harrison's home Friar Park is in which English town?

Answer: Henley-on-Thames

12. Before Barbara Bach, Ringo Starr married Maureen Cox in what year?

Answer: 1965

EASY THE BEATLES' SOLO CAREERS TRIVIA

1. What was the name of the band Paul McCartney formed in 1971 with Linda McCartney and Denny Laine?

Answer: Wings

2. Which John Lennon solo song from 1971 shares its title with a famous plea for peace?

Answer: Imagine

3. George Harrison organized what major 1971 benefit event?

Answer: The Concert for Bangladesh

4. Which Ringo Starr song became a No. 1 U.S. hit in 1973?

Answer: Photograph

5. In what city was John Lennon killed in 1980?

Answer: New York City

6. What is the title of George Harrison's 1970 triple album?

Answer: All Things Must Pass

7. What was the title of Paul McCartney's first solo album?

Answer: McCartney

8. Who played drums for the group called Ringo Starr & His All-Starr Band, launched in 1989?

Answer: Ringo Starr

9. What album did John Lennon record together with Yoko Ono?

Answer: Double Fantasy

10. What was the title of George Harrison's 1987 comeback album?

Answer: Cloud Nine

11. Which James Bond theme did Paul McCartney record with Wings in 1973?

Answer: Live and Let Die

12. Ringo Starr released a 1973 album that included contributions from John, Paul, and George. What was it called?

Answer: Ringo

13. What 1970 John Lennon song has an exclamation point right in the title?

Answer: Instant Karma!

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/the-beatles-solo-careers-trivia>