

The Murder of Roger Ackroyd Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

The Murder of Roger Ackroyd trivia explores Agatha Christie's classic mystery novel, first published in the UK in June 1926 after being serialised as Who Killed Ackroyd?. As Christie's third book to feature Hercule Poirot as the lead detective, it remains one of the most discussed and influential works in the history of crime fiction.

HARD THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD TRIVIA

1. In its original run in The Times, how many installments did the story take to complete?

Answer: It ran in 54 installments.

2. True or false: the novel's newspaper serialization in The Times unfolded across 54 separate parts.?

Answer: True

3. What exact installment count is attached to the novel's Times serialization history?

Answer: 54 installments.

4. Before her death, what pressure had Mrs. Ferrars been subjected to?

Answer: She had been blackmailed.

5. Which hidden circumstance in Mrs. Ferrars's life predates her death?

Answer: She had been blackmailed.

6. Miss Russell's concealed family tie is eventually exposed. Whose mother is she?

Answer: Charles Kent's mother.

7. Which character is linked to Miss Russell not merely by acquaintance, but by maternity?

Answer: Charles Kent.

8. True or false: Miss Russell is eventually revealed to be Charles Kent's mother.?

Answer: True

9. Rather than immediately handing the killer to public justice, what option does Poirot extend to Dr. Sheppard?

Answer: He gives Dr. Sheppard the chance to take his own life.

10. At the climax, Poirot's grim mercy toward Dr. Sheppard consists of offering him what?

Answer: The chance to take his own life.

11. Who is the writer of the narrative account that becomes the novel we read?

Answer: Dr. Sheppard.

12. The book's text is framed as whose written account?

Answer: Dr. Sheppard's account.

13. Playful version: whose manuscript are readers effectively holding while the plot performs its famous trick?

Answer: Dr. Sheppard's.

14. What specific narrative device is the novel especially famous for employing?

Answer: An unreliable first-person narrator.

FUNNY THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD TRIVIA

1. When Poirot fires up the mental engine in this case, what famous internal equipment does he rely on?

Answer: His little grey cells.

2. True or false: Poirot tackles this investigation mainly by sprinting after suspects through the countryside.?

Answer: False

3. In the village setting of the story, what do servants, relatives, and callers all become excellent sources of?

Answer: Gossip.

4. Poirot tries to retire peacefully, but what kind of retirement gets ruined by a murder next door?

Answer: His vegetable-growing retirement.

5. The narrator of the story keeps notes on Poirot's investigation. Professionally speaking, what is he?

Answer: A doctor.

6. Which suspicious detail in the case proves that even eavesdropping can become important evidence?

Answer: An overheard phone call.

7. What ordinary piece of furniture is positioned to make it look as if someone had been sitting there?

Answer: A chair.

8. Which device becomes a key trick in the murder plot, proving technology can be extremely rude?

Answer: A dictaphone.

9. The investigation includes a missing pair of what, tied to Ralph Paton?

Answer: Shoes.

10. Before revealing the truth, Poirot does what classic detective move with the suspects?

Answer: He gathers them together.

11. What small but flashy object helps expose a secret marriage in the case?

Answer: A gold wedding ring.

12. Which oddly specific item is used to hide an object connected to the crime?

Answer: A goose quill tube.

13. Poirot leans on what human-focused tool almost as much as he does physical clues?

Answer: Psychology.

FUN THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD TRIVIA

1. Before readers in the U.S. cracked the case, which company published the American first edition of The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: Dodd, Mead and Company published the American first edition.

2. Agatha Christie dedicated the novel to which family member by marriage?

Answer: She dedicated the novel to her brother-in-law, James Watts.

3. When this mystery stepped onto the stage in 1931, what title did it use instead of The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: The 1931 stage adaptation was titled Alibi.

4. Which playwright turned the novel into the stage version called Alibi?

Answer: Michael Morton adapted the novel for the stage as Alibi.

5. Who donned Poirot's famous role in the 1931 film version of Alibi?

Answer: Austin Trevor played Hercule Poirot in the 1931 film Alibi.

6. In the 2000 television adaptation, which actor took on the role of Hercule Poirot?

Answer: David Suchet starred as Hercule Poirot in the 2000 TV adaptation.

7. Who directed the 2000 television version of The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: Andrew Grieve directed the 2000 television version.

8. The 2000 adaptation gave Roger Ackroyd which actor's face and voice?

Answer: Roger Ackroyd was played by Malcolm Terris.

9. Who played Flora Ackroyd in the 2000 adaptation?

Answer: Daisy Donovan played Flora Ackroyd.

10. Long before binge-watching, the novel first ran in serial form in which newspaper?

Answer: Its original serial version ran in The Times.

11. What year did the serialisation of the novel begin in The Times?

Answer: It began in 1925.

12. Across the Atlantic, which magazine carried the U.S. serial version of the story?

Answer: The U.S. magazine serial appeared in Detective Story Magazine.

13. Which word appears in the title: Murder or Death?

Answer: The title uses the word Murder.

THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD FAMILY TRIVIA

1. Who tells the story in The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: Dr. James Sheppard narrates the story.

2. What is the name of Dr. Sheppard's sister?

Answer: Caroline Sheppard is Dr. Sheppard's sister.

3. In which village does the story take place?

Answer: The story is set in the village of King's Abbot.

4. When the mystery begins, what kind of life is Poirot living in King's Abbot?

Answer: Poirot is living a retired life in King's Abbot when the case begins.

5. What gardening hobby keeps Poirot busy in the village?

Answer: Poirot's hobby in the village is growing vegetable marrows.

6. Who dies before Roger Ackroyd is killed?

Answer: Mrs. Ferrars dies before Roger Ackroyd is killed.

7. What is the name of Roger Ackroyd's home?

Answer: Roger Ackroyd lives at Fernly Park.

8. Who is Roger Ackroyd's niece?

Answer: Roger Ackroyd's niece is Flora Ackroyd.

9. Ralph Paton is related to Roger Ackroyd in what way?

Answer: Ralph Paton is Roger Ackroyd's stepson.

10. Which member of Ackroyd's circle holds the rank of Major?

Answer: Major Hector Blunt is a friend in Ackroyd's circle.

11. Who works as Roger Ackroyd's secretary?

Answer: Geoffrey Raymond serves as Roger Ackroyd's secretary.

12. At Fernly Park, who serves as the butler?

Answer: Parker is Ackroyd's butler.

EASY THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD TRIVIA

1. Who wrote The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: Agatha Christie

2. In what year was The Murder of Roger Ackroyd first published?

Answer: 1926

3. Which famous detective appears in this novel?

Answer: Hercule Poirot

4. Who is the murder victim named in the title?

Answer: Roger Ackroyd

5. What kind of novel is The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: A mystery novel

6. What is the first word in the title The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: The

7. Which surname appears in the book's title?

Answer: Ackroyd

8. The book edition was published first in which country?

Answer: United Kingdom

9. Which publisher released the UK first edition of The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: William Collins

10. Before it appeared as a book, under what title was the story serialised?

Answer: Who Killed Ackroyd?

11. The serial title Who Killed Ackroyd? ends with what punctuation mark?

Answer: A question mark

12. In Agatha Christie's Poirot novels, what number was The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?

Answer: Third

13. What role does Hercule Poirot play in the story?

Answer: He is the lead detective

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/the-murder-of-roger-ackroyd-trivia>