

UEFA European Championship Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

UEFA European Championship trivia explores the history, records, and defining stories of the tournament that crowns Europe's continental champion in men's international football. Organised by UEFA and contested by senior men's national teams, the competition is widely known as the Euros and has shaped generations of players, rivalries, and landmark matches since its debut in 1960.

HARD UEFA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP TRIVIA

1. At the inaugural 1960 European Championship finals, how many teams actually took part in the final tournament stage?

Answer: Four teams.

2. Before the 1980 expansion, the European Championship finals were notably compact. What was the size of the finals field in 1960?

Answer: Four teams.

3. When the European Championship finals expanded in 1980, what new total number of finalists was introduced?

Answer: Eight teams.

4. The 1980 edition marked a major structural change to the Euros. To what size was the finals tournament expanded?

Answer: Eight teams.

5. What specific match-winning mechanism decided the Euro 1996 final?

Answer: A golden goal.

6. In Euro 1996's title match, the trophy was clinched under which now-defunct scoring rule?

Answer: The golden goal rule.

7. True or false: The Euro 1996 final required a penalty shootout to determine the champion.?

Answer: False

8. Who scored the famous golden goal that settled the Euro 1996 final?

Answer: Oliver Bierhoff.

9. Name the match-winner whose strike ended the Euro 1996 final instantly under golden-goal rules.?

Answer: Oliver Bierhoff.

10. Who netted the golden goal that decided the Euro 2000 final?

Answer: David Trezeguet.

11. In Euro 2000's championship match, which French striker supplied the title-winning golden goal?

Answer: David Trezeguet.

12. Which team finished as runner-up at Euro 1996?

Answer: The Czech Republic.

13. Euro 1996 ended in heartbreak for which finalist, beaten after a golden-goal finish?

Answer: The Czech Republic.

14. Which player remains the only one to score in the group stage, semifinal, and final of the same European Championship edition, doing so in 1984?

Answer: Michel Platini.

FUNNY UEFA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP TRIVIA

1. Which cheeky chipped penalty from Euro 1976 became so famous it basically turned into a football noun?

Answer: Panenka

2. In the Euro 1968 semifinal between Italy and the Soviet Union, what decided the winner when football ran out of ideas?

Answer: A coin toss

3. True or false: the Euro 1968 final was so unresolved that they had to do it again.?

Answer: True

4. Who won the very first European Championship final in 1960, setting the opening line of the tournament's history book?

Answer: The Soviet Union

5. What was the score when the Soviet Union beat Yugoslavia in the 1960 final after extra time?

Answer: 2â 1

6. How many European Championship titles does Germany haveâ enough for a hat trick, but only if you stop at three?

Answer: Three

7. Spain has collected how many European Championship titles so far?

Answer: Four

8. Which team managed to win both the World Cup and the European Championship in the same summer?

Answer: No team

9. Euro 2020 kept its name even though the matches actually took place in what year?

Answer: 2021

10. Republic of Ireland first joined the European Championship party in which year?

Answer: 1988

11. Which country made its European Championship debut at Euro 2016, introducing itself on one of the tournament's biggest stages?

Answer: Iceland

12. Which debutant reached the semifinals at Euro 2016, apparently skipping the 'nice to be here' phase?

Answer: Wales

13. Which nation made its European Championship debut at Euro 2024?

Answer: Georgia

FUN UEFA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP TRIVIA

1. In the Euro 2012 final, Spain didn't just win they steamrolled. What was the score against Italy?

Answer: 4-0

2. Who scored the lone goal that settled the Euro 2016 final?

Answer: Hazard

3. The Euro 2020 final needed extra nerve at the end. How was it decided?

Answer: By a penalty shootout

4. Which player gave football its most famous chipped-penalty surname by scoring the winning kick in the 1976 final shootout?

Answer: Antonin Panenka

5. Whose famous volley lit up the 1988 European Championship final for the Netherlands?

Answer: Marco van Basten

6. At Euro 1984, Michel Platini scored enough goals to make defenders dizzy. How many did he score?

Answer: 9 goals

7. Who sits alone as the all-time top scorer in European Championship finals tournaments?

Answer: Cristiano Ronaldo

8. How many goals has Cristiano Ronaldo scored in European Championship finals tournaments?

Answer: 14

9. Which teenager became the youngest scorer in European Championship history at Euro 2024?

Answer: Lamine Yamal

10. At Euro 2024, which 21-year-old scored for England?

Answer: Jude Bellingham

11. Who shared the Golden Boot at Euro 2008?

Answer: David Villa

12. Which striker claimed the Golden Boot at Euro 2012?

Answer: Fernando Torres

13. Who finished Euro 2016 as the tournament's Golden Boot winner?

Answer: Antoine Griezmann

UEFA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What trophy does the winner of the UEFA European Championship receive?

Answer: The Henri Delaunay Trophy.

2. Which person gives his name to the UEFA European Championship trophy?

Answer: Henri Delaunay.

3. True or false: Henri Delaunay was UEFA's first general secretary.?

Answer: True

4. Back in 1976, which country hosted the final tournament?

Answer: Yugoslavia.

5. UEFA Euro 1992 took place in which country?

Answer: Sweden.

6. Which nation hosted UEFA Euro 1996?

Answer: England.

7. Name the two co-hosts of UEFA Euro 2000.?

Answer: Belgium and the Netherlands.

8. Which pair of countries shared hosting duties for UEFA Euro 2008?

Answer: Austria and Switzerland.

9. UEFA Euro 2012 was held across which two countries?

Answer: Poland and Ukraine.

10. In what year did the UEFA European Championship expand to 16 teams?

Answer: 1996.

11. The tournament grew to 24 teams in which year?

Answer: 2016.

12. Instead of being in just one host nation, the 2020 edition was staged across what kind of setup?

Answer: Multiple countries.

EASY UEFA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP TRIVIA

1. Which organization runs the UEFA European Championship?

Answer: UEFA

2. What is the UEFA European Championship commonly called?

Answer: The Euros

3. The Euros are contested by what kind of teams?

Answer: Senior men's national teams in Europe

4. In what year were the first UEFA European Championship finals held?

Answer: 1960

5. Who won the 1964 European Championship?

Answer: Spain

6. Which country both hosted and won the 1968 European Championship?

Answer: Italy

7. Who were the champions of the 1972 European Championship?

Answer: West Germany

8. Which team lifted the European Championship trophy in 1976?

Answer: Czechoslovakia

9. Which nation won the 1984 European Championship?

Answer: France

10. Who became European champions in 1988?

Answer: The Netherlands

11. Which country won the 1992 European Championship?

Answer: Denmark

12. Who won UEFA Euro 1996?

Answer: Germany

13. Which nation was the surprise winner of UEFA Euro 2004?

Answer: Greece

Source: <https://triviagong.com/trivia/uefa-european-championship-trivia>