

Yellowjackets Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Yellowjackets trivia explores the Emmy-nominated drama series created by Ashley Lyle and Bart Nickerson, which premiered on Showtime in 2021. Following a high school girls' soccer team after a plane crash and the survivors' adult lives years later, the show blends psychological horror, mystery, and dark humor. Its acclaimed ensemble cast includes Melanie Lynskey, Juliette Lewis, Christina Ricci, Tawny Cypress, Sophie Nélisse, Jasmin Savoy Brown, Sophie Thatcher, and Sammi Hanratty.

HARD YELLOWJACKETS TRIVIA

1. In the classic North American definition, the common name yellowjacket spans how many genera?

Answer: Two genera.

2. Which pair of genera makes up the classic North American yellowjacket grouping?

Answer: Vespula and Dolichovespula.

3. North American usage separates yellowjackets from paper wasps placed in what genus?

Answer: Polistes.

4. Which solitary wasps are specifically contrasted with yellowjackets in North American usage?

Answer: Mud daubers.

5. In a typical yellowjacket colony, what is the reproductive status and sex of the workers?

Answer: They are sterile females.

6. Queens and workers come from what kind of eggs in yellowjackets?

Answer: Fertilized eggs.

7. Male yellowjackets most commonly develop from what type of eggs?

Answer: Unfertilized eggs.

8. Yellowjacket sex determination follows what broader hymenopteran pattern?

Answer: Haplodiploid.

9. When colonies reproduce, where do new queens go to mate relative to the nest they came from?

Answer: Away from the natal nest.

10. What seasonal change marks the die-off of old queens, workers, and most males?

Answer: The arrival of cold weather.

11. What serious medical response can yellowjacket venom trigger in some people?

Answer: Severe allergic reactions.

12. Which yellowjacket species is specifically noted as having invaded Hawaii?

Answer: Vespula pensylvanica.

13. In invaded ecosystems, yellowjackets can disrupt native insects and what larger ecological structure?

Answer: Food webs.

14. A subterranean yellowjacket nest doesn't always have a single doorway. What entrance detail is specifically noted?

Answer: It may have more than one entrance hole.

FUNNY YELLOWJACKETS TRIVIA

1. At a backyard cookout, what kind of meal are yellowjackets famous for rudely treating like an all-you-can-eat buffet?

Answer: Outdoor meals.

2. Which open drink container can basically send yellowjackets a tiny fizzy invitation?

Answer: Open soda cans.

3. If yellowjackets had a favorite restaurant with terrible ambiance, which place would fit the bill?

Answer: Trash bins.

4. What ground snack can attract foraging yellowjackets even after the tree has clocked out for the day?

Answer: Fallen fruit.

5. At the picnic table, which foods are yellowjackets especially likely to investigate like tiny uninvited food critics?

Answer: Hamburger, hot dogs, and other meats.

6. True or false: A yellowjacket usually leaves its stinger behind after stinging.?

Answer: False

7. Why can a yellowjacket sting and still keep its tiny weapon instead of dropping it like a dramatic movie prop?

Answer: Because its stinger is smooth.

8. If a nest has been disturbed and one yellowjacket starts doing suspicious fly-by security checks, what is that insect likely to be?

Answer: A guarding worker.

9. What can turn one annoyed yellowjacket into a whole defensive committee?

Answer: Alarm chemicals.

10. Which fancy scent might accidentally make a foraging yellowjacket think you are part flower, part bad decision?

Answer: Bright floral perfumes.

11. What bait type is often used when humans decide to answer yellowjacket scavenging with a trap and a plan?

Answer: Protein baits.

12. If you were building a yellowjacket trap with a dessert menu, what kind of trap liquid would be the classic choice?

Answer: Sweet liquid traps.

13. In what kind of climate can some yellowjacket colonies keep the party going unusually long?

Answer: Warm climates.

FUN YELLOWJACKETS TRIVIA

1. What is the scientific name of the commonly known eastern yellowjacket?

Answer: Vespula maculifrons

2. If a yellowjacket is introducing itself as the western yellowjacket, what scientific name should be on its tiny name tag?

Answer: Vespula pensylvanica

3. The German yellowjacket goes by which scientific name?

Answer: Vespula germanica

4. In North American usage, which species is often treated as a yellowjacket under the common name 'common wasp'?

Answer: Vespula vulgaris

5. What is the scientific name of the aerial yellowjacket?

Answer: Dolichovespula arenaria

6. Despite the dramatic name, which insect is actually a yellowjacket in the genus Dolichovespula?

Answer: bald-faced hornet

7. What is the scientific name of the bald-faced hornet?

Answer: Dolichovespula maculata

8. Which scientific name belongs to the southern yellowjacket?

Answer: Vespula squamosa

9. How do yellowjackets recognize nestmates, at least in part?

Answer: chemical cues

10. When yellowjackets make their papery nests, what do they mix wood fibers with?

Answer: saliva

11. On a busy day, yellowjacket workers may hunt one kind of food and sip another. What two things do they often forage for in the same day?

Answer: meat and sugar

12. Yellowjackets tend to get extra noticeable when colonies hit peak size during what part of the year?

Answer: late summer

13. What can a queen lay to start an entire annual yellowjacket colony?

Answer: eggs

YELLOWJACKETS FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What helpful job do yellowjackets do by hunting other bugs?

Answer: They help control other insects.

2. Which of these is something yellowjackets often catch?

Answer: Flies, caterpillars, and other small arthropods.

3. Who gets the chewed-up prey from worker yellowjackets?

Answer: Larvae.

4. True or false: Yellowjacket larvae can give sugary secretions back to adult workers.?

Answer: True

5. At the start of a new nest each year, how many queens begin the colony?

Answer: One single queen.

6. Before any workers are around to help, what does the queen build herself?

Answer: The first nest cells.

7. After the queen's first helpers grow up, who takes over expanding the nest?

Answer: The first generation of workers.

8. What shape are yellowjacket brood cells?

Answer: Hexagonal.

9. Where do many yellowjacket species set up their nests underground?

Answer: In old rodent burrows.

10. Which home spot might some yellowjackets choose: wall voids, attics, or tree branches only?

Answer: Wall voids or attics.

11. A fully grown yellowjacket colony may have about what kind of worker population?

Answer: Thousands of workers.

12. When the season is ending, what two kinds of yellowjackets does the colony produce?

Answer: New queens and males.

EASY YELLOWJACKETS TRIVIA

1. In what region is the common name "yellowjacket" widely used?

Answer: North America

2. Yellowjackets are what kind of social insect: bees, ants, or wasps?

Answer: Wasps

3. The common name yellowjacket applies to wasps in which genus: Vespula or Apis?

Answer: Vespula

4. Besides Vespula, yellowjackets also include wasps in what genus?

Answer: Dolichovespula

5. In many English-speaking countries outside North America, yellowjackets are usually called what?

Answer: Wasps

6. True or false: Yellowjackets are bees.?

Answer: False

7. Are yellowjackets social or solitary wasps?

Answer: Social

8. Who is the top egg-layer in a yellowjacket colony?

Answer: The queen

9. Most yellowjackets people notice in summer are what type of colony member?

Answer: Female workers

10. Unlike a honeybee, a yellowjacket can sting how many times?

Answer: Multiple times

11. What color pattern are yellowjackets especially known for?

Answer: Black-and-yellow markings

12. What body feature gives yellowjackets that classic wasp look?

Answer: Narrow waists

13. Yellowjackets commonly make nests from what material?

Answer: Chewed wood fiber

Source: <https://quizhoot.com/trivia/yellowjackets-trivia>